

LINER LAPLAND IS TORPEDOED?

Queenstown, Aug. 20—4:20 p. m.—A report was circulated here today that the White Star liner Lapland had been sunk. There was no confirmation of this and it is probable that the Lapland was confused with the British steamer New York City torpedoed yesterday whose crew was landed here today.

The Lapland, a Red Star liner, under charter to the White Star Line, sailed from New York August 12 for Liverpool. She is due in Liverpool late today or early tomorrow.

SINKING OF ARABIC MAY END FRIENDSHIP BETWEEN UNITED STATES AND GERMANY

WILSON IS AWAITING DETAILS OF ATTACK

Washington, Aug. 20.—Official details upon which President Wilson will decide whether the sinking of the White Star liner Arabic was an act deliberately unfriendly to the United States were still lacking today and meanwhile the president and all other administration officials while realizing fully the gravity of the new situation between the United States and Germany were keeping their minds open.

President Wilson left the White House early to motor to Philadelphia to visit his oculist and motor back to the capital this evening. When he has a deep problem on his mind it is the president's habit to seek seclusion, often riding through the country side. "No officials here doubted that he was giving hours of thought to the Arabic case. Only two of the dispatches had been received and they gave the fruits of no independent investigation, merely transmitting the reports of the White Star line. The United States will decide its course upon the reports of its own officials.

Ambassador Page forwarded a White Star report that the ship was torpedoed without warning and Consul Thompson at Queenstown made a similar report. Neither accounted for Mrs. Josephine S. Bruguiere nor Dr. Edmund Woods, the two Americans still missing.

While officials here are keeping their minds open during the hours which will be required for assembling the official evidence they are thinking about these points:

Whether any Americans have been lost and whether the Arabic

TWO AMERICANS PERISH IN ARABIC

London, Aug. 20.—It has now been definitely established, the White Star Line announced this afternoon, that only two Americans on the Arabic are unaccounted for. These are Dr. Edmund F. Wood and either Mrs. Josephine Bruguiere or Louis Bruguiere. The name Louis Bruguiere appears on the American embassy's list of the saved.

London, Aug. 20.—The best information now available indicates that a score or more persons lost their lives in the sinking of the White Star liner Arabic by a German submarine yesterday morning off the south coast of

Germans Capture Last Polish Fort; Submarines Sink 12 More Ships

Take Novogeorgievsk After Hard Fight

Berlin, (via London) Aug. 20.—Official announcement was made here today of the capture of the important Russian fortress of Novogeorgievsk with more than 20,000 men.

The statement follows:

"The fortress of Novogeorgievsk, the enemy's last bulwark in Poland has been captured after stubborn resistance. The entire garrison, including over 20,000 men, and an enormous stock of war material fell into our hands. The Emperor left for Novogeorgievsk in order to give the thanks of himself and the Fatherland to the leaders of the attack, General Von Veseler and his troops.

The recapture of Novogeorgievsk had been foreseen in the

ST. LOUIS FLOODED

St. Louis, Aug. 20.—By the middle of the afternoon the street line leading from St. Louis to surrounding towns had been closed because of high water. Firemen were rescuing inhabitants of the several suburbs from second story windows in boats.

The first regiment army and the Coliseum will be open tonight to house thousands of suburbanites who cannot get home.

SELL JACKSON FOR $20,000

Cleveland, Aug. 20.—Outfielder Joe Jackson, of the Cleveland league baseball team, is to be sold within a week to Washington of the same league for $20,000, according to authentic information obtained here today. It is possible that a player will come to Cleveland from the Nationals, but this has not been fully decided.

WILLIS PARDONS TWO

Columbus, Aug. 20.—Governor Willis today pardoned two prisoners, William McGowan, serving a life term from Jackson county, for murder, and Guy Hege, serving a 15-year term from Ross county, for burglary. Both men are afflicted with tuberculosis and are considered to be incurable. McGowan was received two years ago. Hege was admitted less than a year ago, but has been a patient in the prison hospital practically all the time.

ACCUSE LOAN MAN

Columbus, Aug. 20.—Six affidavits charging violation of the state "loan shark" law were filed in police court here today against P. L. Andrews, of Toledo, who operates loan offices in all the larger cities of the state. The affidavits are by alleged borrowers who aver Andrews practiced extortion and in other ways violated the state law.

NAME GOVERNOR'S DAY

Columbus, Aug. 20.—Thursday September 2, will be governor's day at the Ohio State Fair. This was decided by the state board of agriculture at its meeting today. Governor Willis will make an address at 2 in the afternoon on the governor's day. An invitation will be sent to all political parties to take part in the exercises of the day.

DEATH LIST IN TEXAS IS 116

Galveston, Texas, Aug. 20.—Wire service was restored to Galveston today by the Western Union. The first wire message out of the city since Monday was an Associated Press dispatch.

Galveston's known loss of life was eight killed in the city proper and 25 in the low sections on the western portion of the island. Water service is expected to be resumed tonight. There is plenty of food in the city.

Houston, Texas, Aug. 20.—The death list from the Texas storm increased slightly today and the missing list decreased considerably. The known death list was 116 today including 13 known dead in Galveston. Some other bodies were found about Galveston but they were supposed to be mostly from the mainland.

The dead probably will be increased by a dozen or more when the Virginia Point hotel collapse is cleared up. Twenty persons are listed as missing in this collapse and up to today no trace of them has been reported here.

Reports indicated that the thirty persons yesterday listed as missing at Bolivar had been found. Outside of these thirty the only other single large missing list was fifty hands on the dredge Houston. The fact that nearly all hands on a dozen other dredges working in the same vicinity near Galveston had turned up alive after two or three days search for them, relieved worry over the Houston crew.

A conservative estimate of the missing today was less than 100. Reports from Galveston were optimistic for rapid recovery of the city's routes for food supply and for early establishment of wire connection.

FRANK IS BURIED IN BROOKLYN CEMETERY

New York, Aug. 20.—The body of Leo M. Frank, who was lynched at Marietta, Ga., was buried today in Mount Carmel cemetery, Brooklyn. The automobile hearse and the cars carrying the immediate relatives of the dead, travelled at a high rate of speed over the six mile route from the home of Frank's parents to the cemetery in a vain attempt to elude newspaper men and photographers.

Frank's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Frank, the widow and Frank's sister, Mrs. Otto Stern and her husband occupied the automobile that followed the hearse. A dozen other relatives and friends occupied three additional automobiles.

A crowd of scarcely more than a hundred people was in front of the Frank home when the body was carried out at 9:10 o'clock. Twenty minutes later the hearse had arrived at the cemetery, and within thirty minutes from the time the funeral had started the last of the burial services were concluded.

About forty curious persons were in the cemetery when Frank's body arrived, and they crowded close to the grave during the services. Perfect order was maintained both at the Frank home and the cemetery and the police on hand at both places found nothing to do.

WILL HONOR RILEY

Indianapolis, Aug. 20.—This city is planning to honor James Whitcomb Riley on October 7, the anniversary of the "Hoosier poet's" birthday. Many of the foremost men and women in American literary and public life will be invited to be present at a banquet which is to be a feature of the day. Charles W. Fairbanks, former vice president, is chairman of the committee which is arranging the program.

NAME PREVENTION DAY

New York, Aug. 20.—The fire insurance and fire prevention committees of the safety first federation of America announced today that they have selected October 9 as the date for an annual national fire prevention day. These committees are composed of members of from all parts of the United States and Canada and met here yesterday.

Majority Of Victims Are British Boats

London, Aug. 20.—German submarines have increased their activity in the war zones, and during the past two days have sunk nine steamers. Most of them have been British boats, or under British service. They are as follows:

White Star liner Arabic, torpedoed with more than 400 on board. About twenty perished, two of them being Americans.

White Star liner Bovis, torpedoed. No passengers. Fate of crew (mostly British) unknown.

British steamship, New York City, torpedoed. Crew saved.

British steamer Baron Erskine, torpedoed. Crew saved.

British steamer Restormel, torpedoed. Crew saved.

British steamer Serbino of Hull, torpedoed. Crew saved.

Spanish steamer Peris Castillo, torpedoed. Fate of crew is unknown.

Norwegian steamer Sverresborg, torpedoed. Fate of crew unknown.

Wilson liner Grodno of Hull, Torpedoed. Crew saved.

White Star liner Lapland, reported torpedoed and sunk. Rumor is unconfirmed.

British steamer Samara of Glasgow torpedoed. Fate of crew unknown.

British steamer Gladiator of Liverpool torpedoed. Fate of crew unknown.

London, Aug. 20.—The Swansea Leader reports that the British steamship, New York City has been sunk. The crew of the vessel has been saved.

London, Aug. 20.—The Spanish steamer Peris Castillo and the Norwegian steamer Sverresborg have been sunk by a submarine. Three members of the crew of the Peris Castillo were saved. The fate of the others on that craft and of those of the Sverresborg is unknown.

London, Aug. 20.—Two small British steamers, the Baron Erskine and the Restormel, have been sunk by German submarines. Both crews were saved.

New York, Aug. 20.—Advice received here today bring a report that the White Star liner Bovis has been torpedoed and sunk by a German submarine. The Bovis has been employed in the Australian service. She was a vessel of 6,500 tons.

The local offices of the White Star line were without direct news of the sinking of the Bovis although they had heard the report, which came, it was said, from London.

The Bovis, it was said by the officials, was a freighter and on her last trip sailed on August 3 from New York for Manchester, England. The Bovis is a slow boat, having a speed of about 10 knots an hour, and according to the officials should just about be in the war zone today. The Bovis when she sailed from here, was loaded to capacity with a general cargo, including, it is said, large quantities of war munitions. The Bovis carried no passengers.

The Bovis was built at Belfast in 1892. She is 470 feet long, 53 feet beam 23 feet deep. The entire crew was signed up in England and there were believed to be no Americans among the number. The crew consisted of about 60 men.

Eric, Pa., Aug. 20.—John J. McMahon, chief of the Erie Fire department, died early today from injuries received two weeks ago in the Mill Creek flood. Chief McMahon while attempting a rescue in a flood area was swept away, and for a time his name was listed with the dead.

No. 15--The Military Experts

The only reason I could wish that America would ever go to war is that by doing so that every one of this variety of pest could be forced to enlist. But unfortunately this is a free country, and were the United States to declare war on any country, no matter how small, I'll venture to say that every Military Expert in the country would seek the tall and obscure timbers immediately if not sooner.

If they could realize that European generals would be willing to pay perfectly good gold for ideas that would defeat a regiment or lead to the capturing of a capital city they would be better off.

But they insist upon telling you and I every one of the bright ideas they have had in that little round object that fits so neatly on their shoulders.

And there's no argument to any thing they say. If one of them got into his head that the Kaiser could advance on London single handed and capture the city all Britain and earth could not dissipate this idea from their view.

But even at that, it's really amusing to hear two or more of them together. But that seldom occurs, for they know each other so well that they know it would be futile for them to argue among themselves, for it would either mean fight or shut up. They'd rather die than fight, and to stem their tide of expert military opinions would mean almost death, so they proceed to vent their vast knowledge on we poor unfortunate who like to read of the war and figure out things for ourselves.

I think this pest's brain is very limited. I would attempt to think up some punishment for them, but what's the use. In a few years that one little cord will snap and he'll be sitting around on the floor playing war with tin soldiers—about all they are fit for.

WANT REWARD FOR R.W.Y. DETECTIVE'S SLAYER

Kentucky Aroused By Latest Murder

Another railroad detective has been added to the long list of murders that has occurred on railroads in the vicinity of Cincinnati within the past year. Elmer C. Matthews, a Queen and Crescent detective, was killed with his own revolver by two negro hobo, near Ludlow Wednesday afternoon.

Acting Judge D. C. Lee of the Kenton county court, has appealed to Governor McCreary of Kentucky to offer a reward for the capture of the two negro tramps.

Concerning the appeal the following is the following to say:

"I am enclosing herewith a clipping from the Cincinnati Enquirer, August 19, 1915, which describes the murder of Elmer C. Matthews, a highly respected citizen of Kenton county. You will see from the newspaper report that Matthews was killed by two negroes in cold blood while fearlessly and courageously performing the duties of his office as railroad policeman. Murders of this kind have been so frequent in this county that the law-abiding citizens and officials feel that the offenders should under no circumstances be allowed to go unpunished for such would encourage lawlessness among an element that must be suppressed. The negroes are unknown and have escaped to the state of Ohio, and unless some inducement is offered for their apprehension I fear that they will never be found.

"The sheriff of Kenton county, John A. Allison, has offered a reward of twenty-five ($25) dollars for the arrest and conviction of the murderers. In the name of the commonwealth of Kentucky I offer a reward for the arrest and conviction of each of these criminals.

When last seen the fugitives were near Anderson's Ferry. After they escaped from Sheriff Allison and his posse they were rowed to the Ohio side by a man named O'Brien. One of them is wearing Matthews' hat. The negro's hat was left on the Q. and C. freight train where Matthews was shot twice with his own revolver by one of the men. The tramps were beating their way on the freight when Matthews arrested them. The negro who did the shooting has a deep gash over his right eye, where Matthews hit him.

A premonition of impending danger was felt by Mrs. Matthews only a few minutes before the murder. Matthews had gone home to lunch. "I wish you could stay away from work this afternoon," she said. "I just hate to see you go."

"You were never afraid when I was working at night and now I have a day job, which isn't so dangerous," said her husband, only slightly damaged. Will Morgan was the driver.

One negro, Henry, Satterfield, arrested shortly after the shooting, has been found over to the grand jury, although he disclaims any knowledge of the killing. He is held on a charge of stealing railroad brass.

William Henry, 20 years old, of Pensacola, Fla.; Harry Singler, 28 years old, of 122 Park street, Cincinnati; and Troy Lemon, 21 years old, of Boyd, Ky., are under arrest in Cincinnati on suspicion.

FEARS FOR HER BROTHERS IN STRICKEN GALVESTON

Mrs. George Dever of Galia pike, is greatly worried over her only brothers, Chas. and Albert Bivens who lived in Galveston. She has not received word from them since the flood struck the gulf city several days ago. Her last letter from them was received over two weeks before the disaster when they sent her a number of beautiful sea shells. She is anxiously awaiting word from her relatives.

from Martinsville, Ind. Canter left Tuesday to stay at the health resort for two weeks but after two days' stay decided he did not like the place and returned home. Mr. Canter did not write his family of his sudden change of mind, but they were glad to see him home once again.

George True, steel plant foreman wanted off to go to the fair Thursday and turned his keys over to an employee, saying he had a new boy at home and had to go. The sub-foreman spread the "good news" of a new arrival and it soon reached the neighborhood. To stop the report Mrs. True writes:

"It happened that the baby that was born to Mr. and Mrs. George True of East Rhodes avenue on Thursday was one that Mr. True drew at the Lucasville fair. It was a boy all right, and a fine-looking lad and his parents are very proud of him. He wore a red suit, white collar and white tie, and he weighs three pounds and thirteen ounces."

Mrs. Jack Caseman and Clarence Eulitt arrested Wednesday afternoon in Kentucky were arraigned before Mayor Davis Friday morning on charges of disorderly conduct. Attorney Nate B. Gilliland defended the couple. Eulitt was released and the Caseman woman was given until three o'clock Saturday afternoon to leave town.

Frank Craycraft pleaded guilty to drunkenness Thursday morning, and was fined $1 and costs. He was released on giving an order for his pay.

His kick is that when he coasts down the hill on the "spurs," he gains such momentum that he cannot make the turn up Market Road. Not being as much of a motor bug as he, we cannot render a decision as to whether or not the hill should have been cut down more, but as it is too late now, we would suggest that he put a set of brakes on his front wheels.

Gov. Harris To Do All In His Power To Avenge Frank

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 19.—Gov. Nat. E. Harris, in his statement on the lynching of Leo M. Frank, published today said he would do all in his power to discover and bring to justice the guilty parties, believing that the people at large do not justify the wave of lawlessness that seems to be spreading through the state.

On Friday his statement, which was given in the form of an interview the governor said: "It is especially distressing to me, because the attack was made upon the state's own prison built not to resist the violence of its citizens outside, but to keep in confinement the weak and helpless convicts who were unfit for service in the chain gangs of the counties."

The statement which was devoted largely to a review of happenings at the prison on the night of August 16 when Frank was assaulted, points out that state officials had believed that any attack on the place to get a prisoner could be withstood until the Milledgeville militia could be called out. The governor says, however, that the gang that took Frank worked out well laid plans so quickly that resistance was impossible.

Governor Harris gave out his statement after a conference with the state prison commission at which it was intimated plans for an investigation of the whole affair would be discussed. What plans, if any, were formulated, were not made public. The governor had stated that he wanted to get any information members of the prison commission might have. As the commissioners were filling into the governor's office one of them was heard to remark: "We would like a little information ourselves."

Protest Annexation Of Conquered Lands

Paris, Aug. 20.—A long manifesto against any annexation of conquered territory by Germany addressed to the German chancellor jointly by committees of the Social Democratic party and the Socialist groups in the Reichstag is published today by Humanité.

The document points out that the party joined the present struggle with the rest of the German people to defend national existence and independence not to make conquests.

"Every infringement by force," it says, "of the autonomy and independence of a people contains the germs of future wars and implies in itself a dangerous coalition of enemies against Germany. The assertion that the German empire needs to acquire territory east and west to insure her economic existence is refuted by the brilliant economic progress made by Germany in her present form."

The manifesto is dated June 25, but never yet, it is said, has been published in Germany.

IS MINISTER AGAIN TO SANTO DOMINGO

William W. Russell.

William Russell, who was asked by W. J. Bryan to retire from the post of minister to the Dominican Republic in order that James M. Sullivan, a more "deserving Democrat," might be appointed to the place, has now been reinstated by President Wilson. Sullivan, recently was forced to retire because of charges preferred against him. Mr. Russell is a native of Washington and has been in the American diplomatic corps for years, working up to the grade of minister from that of secretary.

Many Injured At Big Four Reunion

Lima, O., Aug. 20.—At the annual reunion of the Big Four families at Delong Grove, near Cridersville, four hundred people fell when a circus-like arrangement of seats gave way as a photo of the reunion was being taken. The injured are:

Mrs. William Latz, Columbus, ankle sprained; Miss Ellen Damm, Kenton, ankle sprained; Mrs. Ruben Haywood, Cridersville, arm wrenched and hip dislocated; Mrs. Ludeva Spikes, Cridersville, internally injured, condition serious; Miss Pauline Bowsher, Cridersville, ankle dislocated; Miss Rhin Duck, Cridersville, head gashed and back injured; Miss Millie Moyer, Cridersville, ankle broken; Mrs. Jacob Delong, Lima, back wrenched; Mrs. Mary Delong, Wapakoneta, bruised about body; Miss Daisy Delong, Wapakoneta, head and arms bruised, and Mrs. J. R. Reichelderfer, Cridersville, both ankles sprained and back injured. Many others received slight injuries.

All the above had to be given medical aid at the scene of the accident. Those standing highest on the tier of circus seats fell about eight feet. Most all alighted on their feet causing so many injuries. The Big Four reunion is that given annually by the Bowsher, Delong, Mowery and Reichelderfer families.

Powers To Offer Bulgaria A Portion Of Macedonia

Rome, Aug. 20.—(Via Paris)—The Entente powers, according to a positive statement made by the Sofia correspondent of the Giornale D'Italia have offered to Bulgaria that part of Macedonia given to her by the Serbo-Bulgarian treaty of 1912, with the right of immediate occupation.

The controversy over the part of Macedonia contested by Serbia and the cause of the second Balkan war will be settled after the present war ends. Proportionate compensation is to be given to Serbia including the city of Kavala with the districts of Kavala and Serus, with the right of immediate occupation. Bulgaria on her side renounces forever pretensions to Salonika, Vodina and Uskub. She promises also to declare war immediately upon Turkey aided by funds of the four allies. Bulgaria, the correspondent declares, will receive further territorial concessions in Turkey. It is believed that Serbia and Greece will give way under pressure by the Entente powers but negotiations will be lengthened by the reluctance of the king of Greece to consent to any concession of territory.

DETECTIVE ARRESTED

Cleveland, Aug. 20.—David Baker, 31, a Big Four railroad detective was arrested today charged with shooting two women early this morning in the Scranton road yards of the railroad. The wounded are Mrs. Marie Lastuska, 22, and Mrs. Mary Monovitz, 23. Neither is fatally shot. Baker made a statement, officers say, in which he said that he thought the women were stealing coal, and that he fired to scare them without any intention to hit them.

London Bankers Meet To Discuss Exchange

London, Aug. 20.—A meeting of bankers was held yesterday to discuss the exchange problem but no announcement except that "proposals previously put forward by a sub committee were unanimously approved." The Morning Post strongly encourages the plan to send a committee of London bankers to New York, recommending that the delegation be headed by Sir Edward Holden, who is widely known in the United States and who played a leading part in London's efforts of assistance at the time of the Wall street crisis in 1907 when the situation was greatly relieved by shipments of gold from England.

The paper hopes the bankers' committee will be supported by representatives of the treasury or the government. "If such a committee takes up the question it is believed the actual details of a plan for establishing suitable credits in America will not be decided until after conferences have been completed between the committee and American financial interests."

Resistance Of Russians Broken At Many Points

Berlin, Aug. 19.—(Via London)—The continued advance of the German and Austro-Hungarian troops on the 18th in the movement to encircle Brest Litovsk, is described by the correspondent of the Alegenzeis Zeitung at Austrian press headquarters. The desperate resistance of the Russians was broken at many points and they were forced to retire to prepared defenses in the immediate vicinity of the fortress.

The right wing of Field Marshal Von Mackensen's forces pressed forward energetically from the south. An Austro-Hungarian army corps was pushed across the Bug east of Dobrynka. Archduke Joseph Ferdinand's troops advanced from Janow and narrowed the circle. Northwest of Brest-Litovsk the Germans forced passage across the Bug at several points. The Russian retreat from Poland is reported to be attended by unprecedented and indescribable misery among the civil population.

SCORE ARE INJURED IN TRAIN WRECK

Salt Lake, Utah, Aug. 20.—Information which reached here early this morning says that the Western Pacific westbound passenger train No. 1, carrying more than 200 persons, was wrecked at Halleck, Nevada, and more than a score of passengers injured. The train left Salt Lake at noon Thursday. Wrecking crews have been dispatched from Elko, Nevada, and the injured are being taken to California cities.

ITCHING NEARLY DROVE A WHOLE FAMILY CRAZY

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 24, 1914.—"My husband had a whole all over his body, and soon the WHOLE FAMILY was in the same condition. It looked awful and raised up on the arms and body in big bumps. This trouble burned and itched so that it would nearly drive one crazy. It was always worse at night, so we could not sleep. We all had this trouble for about two or three years, and during that time tried many remedies and prescriptions with no result. We tried Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap and it RELIEVED AT ONCE, and before the third jar of ointment had been used, we were all completely cured. It has been four months since we were cured, and there are no traces of the trouble."—(Signed) Mrs. S. A. Clarkson, 1520 Lawn Ave.

LIMA OIL ADVANCES

Lima, Ohio, Aug. 20.—Lima oil market today felt its first advance since November 21, 1913, when the top of the market was reached at $1.49. Since then the decline has been steady until the bottom was reached in April, 1915, when North Lima was quoted at 88. The market remained inactive until today.

Advances of five cents were made upon North Lima and South Lima crude oil here and similar advances were made at Findlay on Illinois and Princeton products.

Lima oil market: North Lima, 93; South Lima, 88; Indiana, 79 (no advance); at Findlay, Illinois, 94; Princeton, 94.

WALLINGFORD

William Fisher and John Humphries, of Rowan county, spent Saturday and Sunday at Park Lake. Harvey Coy and his niece, Miss Letta Coy, were at Muse's Mills, Tuesday.

Most of our farmers are blessed with plenty of fruit, and apple cuttings are quite numerous. Mrs. Anna Cline and Miss Lou Jane Bailey were shopping in Muse's Mills, Wednesday. Gus Sipples and G. G. E. McKee are making ties for Willie Plank. John Rigdon and family visited friends in Lewis, Sunday.

John Bailey made a business trip to Muse's Mills, Monday. At the school election Saturday, B. G. Dunaway was elected trustee at Anderson Branch.

Friday was a great day at Park Lake, when a number of editors and business people assembled and partook of a feast sufficient to satisfy the most fault-finding that could possibly be found. We would be glad to give names, but the list is too long.

Bert Hammett is the champion squirrel hunter at present, having killed nineteen at 18 shots. Elijah Williams and wife, of Rowan, are visiting their son, John Lee Williams.

Mrs. Jeff Reynolds died August 17th and was buried Sunday at Ramsey Chapel. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved family.

Brazilian Minister Feted In Capital

Washington, Aug. 20.—Marked official attentions were paid Jose M. Cardoso, Brazilian minister to Mexico who has looked after American diplomatic interests in Mexico City for many months upon his arrival here today. A program of official entertainment in Mr. Cardoso's honor had been prepared including a formal reception at the White House by President Wilson tomorrow afternoon. President Wilson and Secretary Lansing will make every effort to demonstrate to the diplomat the appreciation of the American government for his efforts to protect American interests in Mexico.

FREE ADVICE TO SICK WOMEN

Thousands Have Been Helped By Common Sense Suggestions.

Women suffering from any form of female ills are invited to communicate promptly with the woman's private correspondence department of the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; this has been established a confidential correspondence which has extended over many years and which has never been broken. Never have they published a testimonial or used a letter without the written consent of the writer, and never has the Company allowed these confidential letters to get out of their possession, as the hundreds of thousands of them in their files will attest.

Out of the vast volume of experience which they have to draw from, it is more than possible that they possess the very knowledge needed in your case. Nothing is asked in return except your good will, and their advice has helped thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, should be glad to take advantage of this generous offer of assistance. Address Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (confidential) Lynn, Mass.

Every woman ought to have Lydia E. Pinkham's 80-page Text Book. It is not a book for general distribution, as it is too expensive. It is free and only obtainable by mail. Write for it today.

WORTH THE NOISE.

We rather like the idea of the Merchants' Association to make considerable ado over the completion of the Scioto bridge.

The structure is worth making a noise over because it marks a distinct advance to the present in the county and stands as a promise of more rapid development in the future. It is the only real bridge Scioto county has ever had, though the loss of the one that formerly spanned the river near the same point, shows both how well it administered to a necessity and how considerable is the importance of the west side. With better facilities of access to city markets that section yet so largely unimproved, is going to grow steadily and sturdily and it will not be many years before productivity and, consequently its wealth will be doubled.

Its growth, however, is not going to be solely in fruit culture, for which it is especially and splendidly adapted, but in general farming, trucking and stock raising. More than that, if a traction line should cross the bottom it will show an instant and large increase in population. In fact, it doesn't make a bit of difference from what angle you view it, with the completion of the new bridge there will come an altogether cheery and prosperous outlook for the west side, that unhappily and unjustly has been too much discounted and derided in the past.

WELL, DID YOU EVER!

According to utterances and data, offered by the Huntington Advertiser, the fiercest and bloodiest menace to health, that lurks about under strange guises and dogs our footsteps when we are most unconscious of danger, is the bubbling drinking fountain.

It all came about through the observation of a health inspector, with an unusual activity, if not perverseness to mischief. He watched a public drinking fountain, of the bubble variety until forty-seven persons had slaked their thirst thereat. Then he raised a howl, that, assembly shut off the peril. Of the forty-seven persons drinking at the fountain, eleven were men, twenty-two women and the remainder children. Most of the drinkers put their lips entirely around the metal bowl and one boy was apparently making an heroic effort to suck the whole outfit out of the ground. Some of the men were chewing tobacco, some looked like they had tuberculosis, others had skin eruptions, most of the women wore paint and a number were not altogether successful in keeping their noses out of the bubbler, several of the boys were smoking cigarettes and many of the children were dirty and grimy.

An altogether distressing and disgusting picture. It becomes a frightful reality because where viscid matter of any sort attaches itself to metal it hangs on tenaciously and a gentle flow of water, such as comes out of the bubbler will not wash it away for some time. It would be better, for this cause, if the mouth-piece of the bubblers or fountains were made of porcelain, marble, or other polished substance to which there is little adhesion. If the public using fountains would be careful and refrain from bringing the lips in contact with any part of the bubbler, possibility of communicating disease by means of germs and bacteria deposited thereon would be made remote, but our American public is not particularly given to using thoughtfully and kindly the common conveniences provided for it. Some of us, who have the directorship of these sometimes think many are inclined to see just how disgusting they can make themselves with them.

Some people are cackling because the proof is clear now that Germany contracted for immense quantities of munitions of war to be manufactured in this country. It has been plain enough all the time that Germany was making protest because the other fellows could get the stuff across and she couldn't. It must bite, though, to have it pointed out that she herself sold arms to Great Britain, when that mighty empire was at war with the puny Boer republic.

It is too bad that just after the charitably disposed in sympathetic terror contributed funds for an anti-great white plague camp, the state health board should come along with the indictment that the number of deaths from typhoid fever in Scioto county is positively disgraceful. It says Ohio is the worst state in the Union in this matter of typhoid and Scioto one of the three worst counties in the state.

By-the-way, how is that Sciotoville incorporation matter proceeding? Having worked the board of commissioners for the paving at general expense of its main thoroughfare there appears no good reason why the matter of getting on the municipal map should lag further.

Mae is going to take a day off and introduce Bert to his leaders. That's nice, awful nice, so nice in fact that we suggest Harry imitate it and take Charlie up to Columbus and "make him acquainted" with some that pass him by as if they never knew him.

As yet Roy hasn't accepted Charlie's earnest invitation to come around and talk it over, but it must be borne in mind the campaign hasn't really started.

As the end draws so nigh, we fall to wondering where those good old summer days came in.

OUR GOVERNOR IS GETTING FAMOUS

WHY THE FLEAS FLED.

One of our good paid-in-advance subscribers has finally succeeded in getting rid of the fleas that inhabited his bird dog. He took the dog to De Queen and while there visited a show where a man had a bunch of performing fleas. The fleas on the dog got stage-struck and followed the performing fleas off.—Lockersburg, Arkansas, Tribune.

ON SHAKING HANDS.

How do you shake hands? Do you meet the other hand with a warm, firm clasp, or do you tender it to the other fellow in a listless sort of way? A Pomeroy paper some years ago referred to a politician who masqueraded as a statesman up there, as being about as satisfactory a handshaker as a dead fish.

It is always a little disconcerting to take an extended hand with cordial pressure and find it a mere lump of inert flesh. We never do it twice if we know it, for we regard the man who doesn't "shake" as one who takes without giving. With a woman it is different, of course. She does her full share in yielding her hand to the male touch.—Gallipolis Tribune.

As yet nobody has hinted that the immense debts the warring nations are piling up mean a return to bi-metalism. England, which has ever been master of the financial world has played just such a trick as that before.

Put this much down to the credit of Cincinnati: She has the lowest death rate, far the lowest, from typhoid fever of any city not only in the state but also the United States.

It seems to be getting in the air that the times are going to be altogether lively this fall. The immense crops ought to swell the prosperity of Scioto county.

Seeing what they got in building a concrete, instead of a brick, road towards Lucasville, the county commissioners ought to be satisfied with it. Nobody else is.

Five years ago this paper laid down the axiom that the way to build a permanent road was to build it for permanency. A ride over the concrete extension on the Scioto Trail will convince of that by the contrary.

Of course, there is vexation and loss through these temporary roads, but that is the tribulation necessary to the condition when we will have real roads.

Persons driving over to Lucasville will find "the longest way round" the shortest. That is they had better take the road across the bottom.

DARKEN GRAY HAIR, LOOK YOUNG, PRETTY

Grandma's recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur dawns so naturally that nobody can tell.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe for about 50 cents.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy.

Those interested having gotten the opinion of Mayor Frick on the Sunday movie opening to play perfectly fair should now get that of Candidate Kaps.

Merely in passing it is remarked that the size and number of options rumored doesn't build hotels.

Every community has its problem. Portsmouth is unfortunate or fortunate in having three water works, flood wall and jitney to vex our able and courageous solons.

Sketches by Little
OLD NEW YORK
By Mr. Intyre.

New York, August 20.—The Aeropolitans of Montclair, that haleyon and highbrowed society town in Jersey, are considering the boycott of the town newspapers. The grand motif is to cut down the loss by smooth, light-fingered gentry who are given to porch-climbing and other nocturnal pursuits.

It seems that when a family in Montclair goes away for the week end it is sure to be chronicled under the caption of personals, neighborhood notes, comings and goings or whatever other title occurs to the scribe's ingenious mind. The innocent appearing item invariably invited burglary while the family is absent.

A lady of the town has put the two phenomena together in relation to cause and effect and the town is convinced that society notices encourage the burglar. The suggestion is being considered that instead of sending the items of society folks departure to the newspapers to send them direct to the police.

Vernon Castle, the rascal, is again defying the law on Long Island. This time he let his dog go unmuzzled. The Coney Island magistrate issued an order for Vernon's arrest instead of sending the Sharp Note that is customary in these international affairs.

Sheriff Kinhead who single handed stopped the riots at Bayonne, N. J., after three sleepless nights of terror has been offered a job war corresponding in the well known European trenches. Kinhead is a nifty person and no doubt the paper pulled an enterprising stroke but a lot of people are wondering why he should go over there and break up an interesting war.

Every Saturday of these more or less perfectly splendid weeks the down town streets are seething with vacationers bound for places where it is muggier than New York and much more expensive. Their faces tell how they dread it but they must go.

The metropolis is like a Sunday afternoon all day these Saturdays. Little business is transacted and the majority of the larger stores are closed all day.

The old Badger Game, one of the most popular indoor sports for the unwary during the World's Fair in Chicago, is becoming a fait in Gotham. The Badger Game is worked by a man and woman. The woman, apparently of refinement and always togged out like a Fifth Avenue belle, engages in an innocent flirtation with some prosperous man who is susceptible.

After much maneuvering he is invited to drop into her apartment. He does so and finds it one of rare splendor. After a short while, there is a noise in the office. The lady puts a hand to a fluttering heart and whispers staggily: "Heavens, it is my husband. He will kill you." Husband enters and the whole thing is saved by the victim giving up a sizable bank roll to keep the thing quiet.

It developed that Edward C. Kinhead, the young clerk, who vanished with $22,000 of his firm's money had been a victim to the tune of $1,300 by the Badger Game shortly before he skipped out. Several years ago a courageous wealthy man from the west was lured to one of these departments and the lady to test his nerve said: "What would you give me for this?"

Some Follower
"And when you eloped with the girl," asked a friend, "did her father follow you?"

The Height of Confidence
"Can you write convincingly, confidence-inspiring ads?" asked the prospective employer.
"Well," modestly replied the applicant for a position as advertisement writer, "I can only say that the advertisements I used to write for the Wonder Worker Hair Grower were so convincing that when totally bald elderly gentlemen went into a drug store to buy the grower they also bought a bottle of hair dye."—Ginger.

No Brain Killer
"What did your husband think of the ball game?" asked one

Washington woman of another, as reported in the Star of that city. "Oh, he doesn't go there to think. He just hollers."

Canny

"Have you a nice cucumber?" asked Sandy as he entered the market garden.

"Yes, here is one," replied the gardener, "that will be fine pence."

"Too much. Have you no one for about tuppence?"

The gardener showed him a small one on the vines. "You can have this one for tuppence," he said.

"All right, here's the tuppence, but don't cut it off. I'll be calling for it in a fortnight."—Exchange.

"So you don't permit any motor cars in Crimmon Gulch!"
"Nary one," replied Broncho Bob. "We hate to see behind the times, but we concluded it were agin public policy to have all the boys quittin' a poker game every time a tire blew out, thinkin' somebody was shot."—Washington Star.

RECIPE TO CLEAR A PIMPLY SKIN

Pimples are Impurities Seeking an Outlet Through Skin Pores.

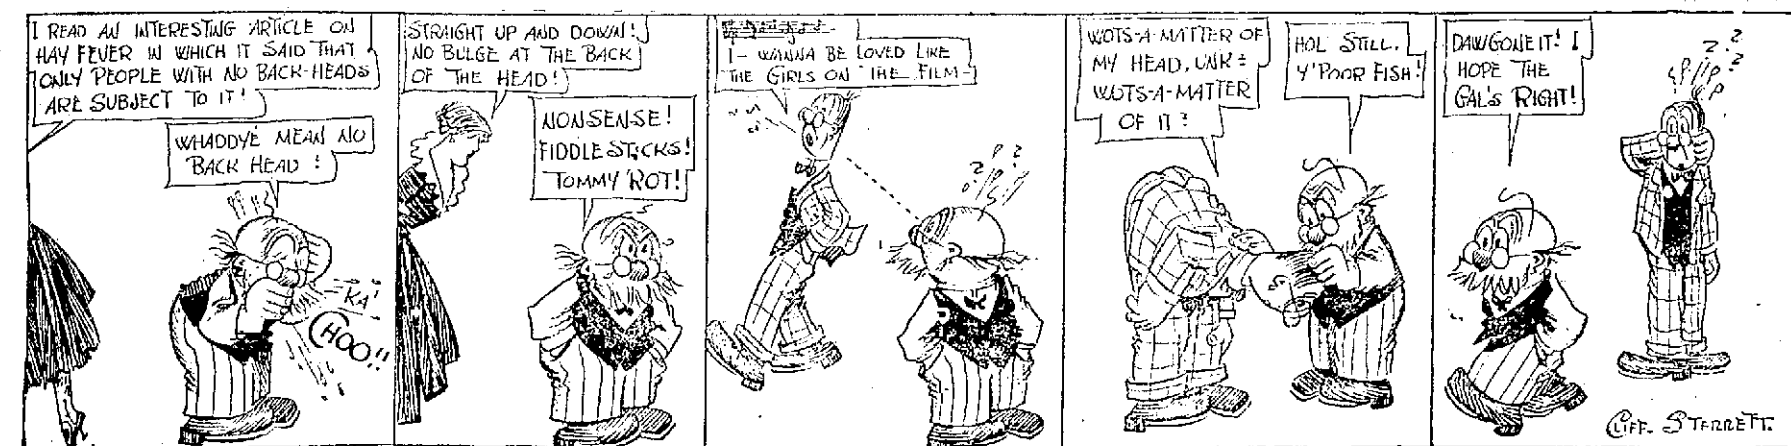

Pimples, sores and boils usually result from toxins, poisons and impurities which are generated in the bowels and then absorbed into the blood through the very ducts which should absorb only nourishment to sustain the body.

It is the function of the kidneys to filter impurities from the blood and cast them out in the form of urine, but in many instances the bowels create more toxins and impurities than the kidneys can eliminate, then the next best means of getting rid of these impurities which often break out all over the face in the form of pimples.

The surest way to clear the skin of these eruptions, says a noted authority, is to get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of hot water each morning before breakfast for one week. This will prevent the formation of toxins in the bowels. It also stimulates the kidneys to normal activity thus causing them to filter the blood of impurities and clearing the skin of pimples.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia. It gives you a pleasant, effervescent drink which usually makes pimples disappear, cleanses the blood and is excellent for the kidneys as well.

The Markets

NEW YORK STOCKS

New York, Aug. 20.—The Arabic incident caused extreme weakness in war specialties at the opening of today's market, losses in that group ranging from 3 to 8 points. General Motors, New York Air Brake, Studebaker, Goodrich, Westinghouse, American Can and Crucible led the decline, which probably was assisted by heavy short selling. United States Steel was heaviest of the favorites, a lot of 8,000 shares being offered at 73 to 72, a maximum loss of 2 3/4. In the main, railway shares were relatively steady, recessions in that part of the list being limited to a point or less. Railies of 2 to 4 points in the specialties ensued before the expiration of the first half hour.

Further gains in specialties were made in the final hour and the more substantial stocks also were stronger. The closing was irregular.

Stocks were under the spell of the Arabic disaster today, with material recoveries from lowest prices in the later dealings.

Sales of the first hour exceeded 350,000 shares, Steel supplying one-fifth of the whole. That stock was regarded as the barometer of the market, not merely by reason of its activity, but because of the heavy selling which preceded yesterday's late declining movement. It yielded one-half of its two point recovery, but made partial improvement from that level.

Similar irregularities was shown by other industrials and specialties, none of which, however, repeated their low opening prices. Railroads became heavy later, Harriman and Hill issues, together with Reading falling under yesterday's minimum quotations. Bonds were lower.

Ham En Casserole

Select a slice of ham about two inches thick; dredge with flour and saute brown in its own fat. Brown two sliced onions in this fat, also a carrot scraped and sliced. Place the ham in the casserole, cover with the vegetables; add one turnip pared and cut into small cubes. Add half a teaspoonful of pepper; then pour on a cupful of boiling water; cover and cook for three hours in a moderate oven; half an hour before the cooking is finished, add a cupful of strained tomatoes.

"A Friend"—I cannot answer your letter through these columns. It is too personal. If you are so anxious about it, go to the store and ask for yourself.

My Dear Miss Wise—I am planning a winter window-garden. Will you give me the names of some plants which will prove a success?
HELEN.

Among the best plants for this purpose are the beezonia, cyclamen, geranium, oxalis, Chinese primrose, fuchsia, coleus, ageratum, calla, asparagus, plumosus, ground ivy, heliotrope, abutilon and candytuft.

Dear Miss Wise—I think you must know most if not quite everything. So I appeal to you to know what planet is so big and bright in the southeastern sky these late evenings. Thankfully from
M. S. C.

The planet Mercury can be seen with the naked eye at this time.

Miss Dolly Wise.—Kindly name me the seven largest cities in the world at the present date.

Dear Miss Wise—I have been keeping company with a young man for about a year. He has not said anything about becoming engaged. Would you advise me to still keep company with him?
LITTLE MISS MUFFET.

Boys nowadays go with girls without the least intention of marrying them. Why not go with him, just for the pleasure you get out of it, without thinking of marriage yourself? I would go with other boys, too, though, if I were in your place.

Dear Dolly.—Would you advise me to go with a stingy fellow?
THE SLENDER GIRL.

Not unless he has redeeming characteristics.

Dear Miss Wise.—Is too frequent washing of the head injurious to the hair?
BLONDIE.

Yes. Wash it only once in two weeks, and if it does not get oily or need it then, wash it every three or four weeks.

Dear Miss Wise.—Is it permissible for a woman to use the same cards for business as for social affairs?

SOCIETY

A delightful social event of this afternoon was the beautiful tea given by Mrs. James Stirling Pearce at her pretty home on Ninth street, complimentary to her attractive niece, Miss Evangeline Chadbourne, of Syracuse, N. Y. The rooms were exquisitely adorned in yellow flowers, similar and ferns, the color scheme being in the yellow and green colors. During the receiving hours, from three until six, one hundred handsomely gowned women called to meet the guest of honor. In line to receive were Mrs. Pearce, Miss Chadbourne and Mrs. Raymond D. York, all attired in handsome gowns. Although the day was a cloudy one, the rooms were so prettily decorated and brilliantly lighted that the guests did not realize the gloom of the outside after entering the attractive home.

Among the guests from out of town were Mrs. E. B. Jansman, of Hyde Park, Cincinnati, guest of Mrs. John Kenrick; Mrs. F. H. Ernest, of St. Louis, Mo., guest of Mrs. L. D. York; Mrs. Hugh N. Edgington, of Memphis, Tenn., guest of Mrs. A. S. Doherty; Miss Jess Muller, of Henderson, Ky., and Mrs. Davis, of Pekin, China, guest of Miss Bess Pixley. The dainty refreshments were served in the yellow and white adorned dining-room. Mrs. Earl Cookes and Miss Gertrude Davidson invited the guests to the refreshment room, where Misses Alice Blake, Sadie Krieger, Katherine Moller, Mrs. Campbell Taylor and Mrs. Albert H. Te Pas served the dainties. Miss Katherine Hall and Miss Dorothy Varner presided at the punch bowl.

Following were the invited guests: Mesdames Clint Seal, Jessie Balles, J. W. Bannan, Jr., Finis Ernst, Guy Thompson, John Brushart, Frank Alger, Albert Berndt, John Kenrick, Geo. Kahn, Geo. SOCIETY

The Home League Club is planning an outing next Tuesday at the Mussler Camp, on Brush Creek.

Mrs. Meredith, of Price Hill, Cincinnati, is a guest at the home of Mr. E. J. Kewick.

The regular monthly meeting of the Bigelow Methodist Children's Mission Band will be held Saturday afternoon, at 5:30, instead of 2 o'clock, at the home of Miss Alice Dunit, 1225 Second street, the leader of the band. Refreshments will be served to the members at six o'clock, after which the members of the band will sell ice cream cones to anyone outside of the band. Automobile parties are invited to stop and buy of these energetic children.

Miss Arena Harris has gone to Cleveland to visit at the home of Mrs. Herman Cohn, formerly Miss Carrie Richmond, of Portsmouth.

The Misses Julia and Lida Molen, of Newport, Ky., are guests at the home of their sister, Mrs. Earl Gleason, of Sixth street.

Misses Mary Varner, Nell Turley, Elizabeth Bamann, Ruth Clare, Martha McGhee, Marie Bauer and guests, Rachel Gregg and Frances Abshier, of Hackensack, N. J., and Julie Bell Kiker, of Ripley, Mo., Evan Williams, Wallace Drew, Charles Turley, William Jones, Leigh Watkins, James Williams, Ellsworth Williams, Hugh Tomper, Sherman Grizzell were a jolly party who motored to the Williams cottage for supper last evening.

Mrs. Louis Lowry, Mrs. Charles L. Dowling, Mrs. Louis Spencer and Miss Grace Fry chaperoned about thirty young girl members of the Woman's Circle of the Second Presbyterian church to Crichton's for an outing today.

Mrs. and Mrs. P. E. Selby will entertain at dinner this evening Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Selby and their guests, Prof. and Mrs. B. L. McElroy, of Delaware.

Mrs. Jessamine Church, mother, Mrs. Hyatt, and sister, Mrs. C. G. McLaughlin, of Ladonia, Texas, spent Thursday at Miss Ella Berry's home in Quincy, Ky.

The C. T. N. Circle of the First Baptist church was entertained last evening at the home of Miss Stella Bess of Seventh street, as a farewell to Misses Rachel and Sara McArthur, who are leaving the last of this month for Marion. Music and games were followed by refreshments. Those present were Misses Elva Patton, Mame and Alma Miller, Katherine Burns, Inez Stutcher, Gertrude Dunley, Carrie Sowers, W. H. Sowers, Stella Howe, Barbara Sowers, Rachel and Sara McArthur, Mrs. William Sellards, Mrs. Jack

Mrs. Stephen Holman, of Ninth street, entertained Thursday afternoon with a miscellaneous shower in honor of her cousin, Miss Mahel Willis, whose marriage to Mr. Herbert Moessner, a prominent young business man of Columbus, O., will take place September 10th. in their own cosy home which they have already furnished for their occupancy. The bride-elect received many beautiful presents, which will have a welcome place in her new home. The color scheme in the dining-room was pink and white. Delicious refreshments of orange sherbet and pink and white cake were served by the hostess, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Adam Herder. The favors were pink and white candy. One of the pleasures of the afternoon was the web which the bride-elect was given to wind, at the end of which she found a large basket filled with the presents, and was made to sit in the middle of the room and unwrap them, which created some amusement. The guests present were the grandfather of the bride-elect, Mr. Wm. Gibson, who is 89 years of age, and Misses Bessie Hoy, Myrtle Hoy and Charlotte Bastian, of Columbus, Laetia Marsh, of South Webster, Mary and Mildred Pordum, Mahel Mountz, Mahel Willis, Mrs. Elizabeth Willis, mother of the bride-elect, Mrs. Charles Moritz, Mrs. Joseph Farmer, Mrs. Frank Bachman and daughter, JoAnna, Mrs. Holman, Mrs. Adam Herder and Master Raymond Moritz. A special feature of the decorations was the white wedding bell suspended from the chandelier, which was on the wedding cake of Mrs. Adam Herder, mother of Mrs. Willis, 32 years ago, and was also used on the wedding cake at the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Herder seven years ago, just previous to the death of Mr. Herder.

Mrs. Robert Fisher and son, Bobbie, of Anderson, Ind., arrived last evening to visit her mother, Mrs. August Astholz, to remain until after the Kora Carnival. When she returns home Mr. Fisher will come to Cincinnati to meet his wife.

Mrs. A. G. Dilworth, of Ladonia, Texas, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Jessamine Church, of Fourth street.

Prof. and Mrs. B. L. McElroy, of Delaware, will be guests of Mrs. Ann Reed tomorrow at Camp Brookside, where Mrs. Reed is spending two weeks.

The Misses Edna and Margaret Martin, of Cincinnati, are expected soon to visit their aunt, Mrs. Joseph Salmon.

Mrs. Hugh N. Edgington and daughter, Miss Aveline Edgington, of Memphis, Tenn., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Dunit for a few days.

Mrs. and Mrs. Harry Revare and guest, Mr. Hendrix, of Greensboro, N. C., and Miss Leonora Allard motored to the Lucasville Fair yesterday.

Miss Ella Berry, of Quincy, Ky., was the guest of Mrs. Jessamine Church today.

Class Number Five of the Manly Sunday school, Miss Letta Adams, teacher, was entertained last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Conklin, on Campbell avenue, in business and social session. Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows:

President—Mrs. Guy Ackley.
Vice-President—Mrs. Samuel Bradford.
Secretary—Mrs. Nellie Tomlinson.
Assistant Secretary—Mrs. Alice Brown.

Treasurer—Mrs. Mary Davis.
Pianist—Mrs. Charles Shela.
Sick Committee—Messdames Brooks, Crookshanks, Miss Susie Dummer.
Flower Committee—Messdames Conklin, Bradford, Chabot and Alice Brown.

After the business delightful vocal music was rendered by Rev. and Mrs. Gilliland and Miss Letta Adams and an interesting recitation by little Miss Stella Conklin. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her daughter, Miss Stella Conklin. The place for the next meeting will be announced later.

Miss Lenore Life entertained a few friends last evening in honor of her guest, Miss Hazel Bierly, of Chillicothe Pike.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Greenberg, of Portsmouth, came up Tuesday to spend the day with Mr. Pastor, who has been ill for several days.—Oak Hill Press.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Baker and little son, Richard Le Roy, accompanied by Miss Ruth Baker, left today for Cincinnati to visit with relatives and friends.

Friends in the city have received cards from Mrs. F. M. Rankin, who with her husband is enjoying the W. O. M. encampment at Canton, O. They are situated on Myers Lake, near Canton. They report a splendid time, though rather cool, and are very glad they have plenty of blankets along. Mrs. Rankin says they have fine bathing, fishing and plenty of good eating. The boys are doing everything possible to make it pleasant for the ladies who are their special guests. W. O. W. knows how, too.

Mrs. Charles Moreland and sister, Miss Goldie Murphy, have returned from a delightful two weeks' visit to friends and relatives at Corapolis, Pittsburgh and Monaca, Pa. Mr. Moreland was unable to make the trip this summer on account of business. Mr. Moreland is employed as metallurgist at the Whitaker-Glessner plant.

Mrs. Hattie Russell has gone to Batavia, to spend two weeks at Shadeland, near that town.

Mrs. O. T. Heberlin, of Eighth street, has returned from Madge, Ky., where she went to attend the funeral of her father, Mr. R. J. Meek, who died Monday night after a lingering illness of Bright's disease.

The Y. W. C. A. will be the scene of a musical next Monday evening, when Mr. Newberry will give a concert on the Edison phonograph. Everybody is welcome. Mr. Newberry is visiting the different cities giving Edison concerts.

Mrs. Alice Evans' class of Scholastic Methodist Sunday school, was entertained last evening at the home of Mrs. O. B. Barley. The evening was spent in games and music and a contest of pinning the tail on a horse. Earl Duvendack won the first prize, a pretty picture, and Carl Edgington the body favor, a doll.

Miss Muriel Stewart entertained the guests with delightful music. Refreshments of pink and white ice cream and cake were served. Those present were as follows: Messrs. and Messdames W. P. Post, Carl Brock, M. T. Preston, O. B. Barley, Joseph Baker, Messdames Estelle Cunningham, Allie Evans, May White, Misses Clara Fay, Muriel Stewart, Nellie Prather, Dora Bentley, Rosa Saickert, Ella Swickert, Rosa and Emma Bentine, Messrs. Willard Frank, Frank Best, Carl Edgington, Earl Duvendack, Arthur Dotson, Carl Brant, Ooris, Elizabeth and Inez Bartley.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Anderson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Morton Shawway and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Breco and sons, George and James Breco, and Miss Sara Miller motored to the Lucasville Fair yesterday and ate picnic dinner on the way.

BUGGY RIDING DRUNK

An old fashioned buggy riding drunk was required by Clinton Matthews Thursday afternoon. At least he crawled into a buggy standing in front of a Gallia street caboon and it took a good deal of persuasion on the part of Patrolman Joe Stokley to get him out. In police court he was fined $5 which he paid and was released.

Have You A Want--Fill It With A Times Want

Yes, The Fall Wash Goods Have Arrived at Andersons'

For several days past many customers have been interestedly inquiring when our new wool dress fabrics would be in. We are very glad to announce that they have been received and are now on display. The fall materials such as Poplin, Eplinge, Gabardine, Broadcloth and Serge are not only very attractive materials, but are also well known for their wearing qualities. The shades for the coming season while quiet and somewhat sombre can be enlivened with bright and harmonious trimming.

The cool days and nights we have been having are but the harbinger of the cooler weather of autumn. You should be prepared for these cool days—buy your wool dress goods early so that you can be appropriately dressed when the chilly days of September and October come unexpectedly.

RUSSIA MAY MOVE ARCHIVES TO MOSCOW

London, Aug. 20.—As the Austrians and Germans press on to the last of the outlying fortresses standing between the Russian capital and the invaders Petrograd is discussing the advisability of removing the government to its ancient seat at Moscow, always considered the heart of the nation. Kornev is now definitely in the hands of the Germans. The flanking movement of Field Marshal von Mackensen grows more threatening hourly and it would not be surprising if Grand Duke Nicholas should abandon all efforts to form a new line with Brest-Litovsk as the pivot.

From Brest-Litovsk to Osovetz which seems to be withstanding the assault of the heavy German guns better than any other fortress, fierce fighting continues with the advantage in favor of the invaders. Riga has again become a center of a struggle on land and sea. Petrograd states that the Russian warships protecting the

GALVESTON'S SEA WALL HOLDS, BUT CAUSEWAY IS CUT IN TWO

Galveston's sea wall; causeway connecting city with mainland.

Galveston has undergone one of the severest storms in the annals of the Gulf of Mexico, suffering a financial loss of probably fifteen million dollars and a small loss of life. The city's famous sea wall has held, but the causeway which connects Galveston with the outside world has been cut in two.

Send Bread And Food To Stricken Galveston

Houston, Texas, Aug. 20.—With bread and other food supplies from neighboring cities reaching Galveston, and a promise that railroad communication with the city soon would be resumed, less anxiety weighed upon the state officials and people here interested in the distressed people than at any time since Galveston had been in danger. Late messages confirmed reports that little outside aid would be necessary in Galveston, and that the deaths there would number less than a score. Attention was turned to other spots which felt the force of the hurricane. Reports from other cities outside of Galveston early today showed a list of 101 known

Two Deaths Toll Of Storm At Port Arthur

Port Arthur, Texas, Aug. 20.—Water is receding rapidly today. Two deaths and considerable property loss was the toll of the great Gulf storm here. The dead are one man and a negro. The

Arabic Victim Is Well Known In San Francisco

San Francisco, Aug. 20.—Mrs. Josephine Bruguiere, one of the American passengers of the Arabic reported unaccounted for, is the widow of Emile Bruguiere, and mother of Dr. Pedro S. Bruguiere, of this city.

Mrs. Bruguiere was returning from Paris to New York accompanied by her youngest son, Louis Bruguiere. Louis Bruguiere is listed among those saved when the Arabic went down.

Mrs. Bruguiere had for several years maintained a residence in Paris in addition to her villa Castlewood, at Newport, R. I. She nized that the only question was how long the defenders would be able to hold out.

The grand duke's decision apparently was due to the strategic position of the fortress. So long as the Russians retained it they were able to stop communication. Novogeorgievsk is 19 miles northwest of Warsaw and is situated at the junction of the Vistula, Narew and Wkra rivers. It was described by an Associated Press correspondent who visited it yesterday as a second Vicksburg.

For nearly 2 weeks the fortress had been completely invested by the Germans and several of the outlying forts were captured earlier this week. Novogeorgievsk was strongly defended and was said to have been equipped with sufficient ammunition and food supplies for a long period. Its speedy capture doubtless represents another triumph for the great German and Austrian siege guns. Pieces of the heaviest calibre were brought up for the attack.

Whether the Arabic, by having been conveyed on the beginning of her voyage, had, under international law, partaken of the character of her convey and waited her right as a noncombatant. Whether by proceeding to the vicinity of the steamer Dunsley, which had just previously been torpedoed, the Arabic's captain introduced any qualifying circumstances by violating the rule of British admiralty which forbids a ship to risk itself by attempting to assist another which had been torpedoed.

A view prevailed that an attempt by the Arabic to succor those on another torpedoed ship was justified and was not affected by the British admiralty rule which was made as a matter of policy for warships and was not a matter of international right.

Whether the Arabic's movement toward the Dunsley might be interpreted as an attempt to ram the submarine is another point to be developed.

Secretary Lansing refused to discuss these or any other features of the case. He said no orders had been given to the embassy in London or the American consuls to forward evidence from the passengers and crew as all officials understood they are expected to do so immediately.

Dependence will be placed particularly upon the evidence of Americans on the Arabic.

There is no attempt in official quarters to minimize the situation confronting the president if an investigation develops a violation of American rights in defiance of the last note to Germany which gave notice in final terms that another sinking like that of the Lusitania would be considered an act "deliberately unfriendly."

The prospect of severance of diplomatic relations with Germany again came forward but it was understood that if such a course should be decided upon it would not immediately be announced.

Certain arrangements to transfer to some other neutral the humanitarian trusts in the war zone which the United States has undertaken for the world would first be necessary.

Officials awaited developments hourly with evidences of sober earnestness which portrayed their concern for a situation which admittedly has never been more grave.

Five weather and a calm sea also contributed to the outcome.

In Queenstown everything possible was done today to assist the survivors, many of whom were without clothes or money. As in the case of the Lusitania the citizens of Queenstown came to the assistance of the sufferers and none went without clothing, food and shelter. A number of the survivors are suffering from minor injuries, but so far as is known no one was in a serious condition.

With the main facts of the disaster established, the English public turned its attention to the possible effect on relations between the United States and Germany. Definite word that American lives had been lost was awaited with more interest than any detail of the Arabic's story yet to be told.

The White Star line announced this morning that all but eight of the passengers had been landed at Queenstown. Four of these were said to be Americans. According to information called to Washington by Lewis C. Thompson, American consul at Queenstown, however, Dr. Wood and Mrs. Bruguiere are the only missing Americans. The other two, Just Houlihan of Philadelphia and Thomas Elmore of New York, were reported by Mr. Thompson to have been saved.

In all about 400 of the 423 persons on board the Arabic have been accounted for. The fate of the others is still in doubt, but as the hours lengthen since the Arabic met with swift destruction hopes that the others may have been saved are fading.

The announcement that all but eight of the passengers were saved here out earlier reports that a great majority of the missing were members of the crew. Captain William Finch, of the Arabic,

RAIN MARS CLOSING DAY AT LUCASVILLE FAIR

Races Called Off;
Thursday Crowd
Insured SuccessRain kept the attendance down on the closing day of the Scioto
County Fair at Lucasville today, but a fair-sized crowd was on the grounds during the early part of the day, viewing the exhibits and the live stock.At one o'clock, P. H. Harsba in charge of the speed program, announced that the three races scheduled for this afternoon would be called off on account of the muddy condition of the track.
It was still raining at that time, and good racing was out of the question.Despite the bad weather on the closing day, the fair was a huge success, both artistically and financially, and the directors are pleased with the support given them by the people of Portsmouth and Scioto county. The large crowd on Thursday insured
a successful year from a financial standpoint, and a small balance will likely be left for next year when all expenses are paid.Old soldiers and the wives and widows of the old soldiers were admitted free today by the fair management, and many of them
availed themselves of the opportunity to attend the fair as the guests of the directors.
Fifty-five hundred people paid to enter the grounds Thursday, which was the biggest day ever experienced by the fair management. The grounds and nearby fields were swarmed with automobiles, buggies, and wagons, while the fair grounds were crowded almost to their capacity. It was a jolly crowd, one that enjoyed every moment of the day.Music for the races was furnished by the River City band of this city. Several free attractions were staged near the main entrance, and the lovers of stock spent an interesting time watching the award of premiums. A balloon ascension by Prof. William Rodgers was another big feature of the day's doings.
The races were interesting, and well attended. The summaries

Frick extends a cordial invitation for the men to return to Portsm-

on the conduct of their encamp-

Col. E. A. Dewell, Jr.,
Camp American Mechanics,
Camp Llewellyn, York Park,
My dear Mr. Llewellyn:I have the honor to say that we have in our city at this time an association of young men, members of the Jr. O. U. A. M. that we as citizens should like to quarter within our borders and have them remain among us as citizens and friends. However, as this seems impossible, it must then become apparent that we should avail ourselves of any opportunity that may present itself to have them come among us, if but for a brief visit, at any subsequent time.Therefore, in behalf of the citizens, whom I have the honor to represent, I not only extend toyou and your members a hearty invitation to return to the people the beautiful scenery, and the hospitalities of Portsmouth, but I expect you to come to our city for your next encampment.I submit that when the matter of your encampment in this city
this year was presented to me by our worthy townsmen and member, Capt. Wm. Boyles, that we had little conception of what your equipment really consisted.Since, however, we find your organization to be composed of men of the highest type, equipped to come among us for camp life, prepared to take care of every pleasurable pursuit, as well as to properly care for those indisposed without solicitation or assistance, inspires us to feel more than ever proud of you as an organization.We, therefore, believe that you have, and will continue to add to our community life greatly, inspiring patriotism and zeal in our young men, in whom the safety of our citizens and the nation mustin the future depend. You are proudly bearing that emblem of freedom wherever God fearing men may reign, and instilling in them the indisputable results that follow in the wake of that nudy-ing respect for its colors and stripes. A principle so grand shall ever be supreme wherever man, in the fulfillment of his station in life, is found entrenched.We bid you welcome, a safe return among your loved ones, and a cordial greeting among us at any time, especially during your next encampment.Respectfully submitted,

LEXINGTON GRABS FINAL GAME FROM PORTSMOUTH

FACING a patched up team owing to the absence of Manager Chas. Spencer and Second Baseman Joe Bush the Lexington Colts started out to win Thursday's game at Millbrook and they turned the trick annexing their final clash in the local park by a 4 to 3 score.

Lingrel, who went to the mound for the visitors was at his best and aside from the second inning when Portsmouth bunched three hits for three runs the tall Kentuckian was invincible. Several times Portsmouth was in a position to score but it was at these supreme moments that Lingrel was exceedingly effective. His teammates played gingerly behind his first class box work and Lexington romped away with the game.

Hancock, rf. 2 0 1 2 0 0

Portsmouth's three runs came in the second inning. Johnson teased a pass out of Lingrel. Colon fled to right. Johnson took third when McKenry singled. Jacobus singled, Johnson scoring. Doherty worked Lingrel for a pass. Hancock at this juncture scored McKenry and Jacobus with a right field double. This was all the scoring Portsmouth indulged in during the balance of the game. The best chance to its up matters came in the seventh when Jacobus led off with a double and took third on Doherty's hit. Hancock walked, but Doherty hit into a double play McKenry to Brown.

Lexington won the game in the fifth inning when Colon doubled and McKenry, Brown and Wright singled, two runs being scored. The score:

RYAN CLAIMS DAUBERT

The Rocky Mount team has claimed the shortstop Harry Daubert of the Charleston team. Manager Roy Ryan of the Rocky Mount team says Daubert was only loaned to Charleston and is the property of his club.

The Charleston Gazette says: "With the going of Daubert, if he is gone for good, probably goes the Senatore's pennant hopes. He has been the life of the infield and without him the team is hopelessly off its stride. He probably will be in the game in a few days when the matters can be adjusted with the Rocky Mount club. It is thought they will let him stay."

HERE IS MOST COSTLY "BILL"

Cleveland, Aug. 19.—William 1:58 1/2, world's champion pacing stallion, has been sold by A. Earl Vassila, his owner, to C. H. G. Billings, New York horseman for $35,000. William, in a match race at North Randall last Monday, defeated Directum 1 and established new records.

Billings had never seen the horse until that day. William will be withdrawn from racing and placed in the stud.

GETS HARD ASSIGNMENT TOLD TO ROAST TEBEAU

Jack Kearney, a St. Louis notable, tells this one:

One afternoon during the old days of baseball Pat Tebeau and his Spiders came to town. Pat was in an extremely warlike mood the first day and he feared the umpire after every second decision. Pat, as the old fans know had quite an extensive and profane vocabulary and that day in particular he called to his loudest some of the most frightful sounding speeches that ever have echoed across a baseball diamond.

It was in the newspaper game then and was covering the game. It so happened that my managing editor, a testy old fellow, who adored profanity, was in the audience.

"The next day the chief said for me," "You heard Tebeau's language, didn't you?" demanded the chief.

"I answered in the affirmative."

"Well, sir," thundered the boss, "that sort of thing must stop. I want you to go to Tebeau's hotel and tell him firmly and emphatically that he can't use that sort of talk in this city, and that you have my orders, if he refuses to cut it, to roast him in the columns of this paper. Tell him that Tebeau that he can't bluff me."

Kearney refuses to say whether he covered that assignment, but the betting is ten to one he didn't.

Claim Braves And Giants Are Through

Eastern critics seem to have reluctantly abandoned hope for the ultimate success of the Braves. The inability of Bill James to work his share of games may be accepted as the main cause of Boston's failure. For James' absence not only deprived the club of his numerous victories, but broke up the rotation for

Benton Case Is Deferred

New York, Aug. 20.—John R. Benton, president of the National League, announced today that the meeting of the league directors to consider the case of Fletcher Benton, which was to have been held here tomorrow was postponed until August 27.

Says National Clubs All Punk

It is rather amusing to read the way Chicago writer, in a recent issue of the Chicago Journal, insists that there are eight poor clubs in the National and seven in the American. He regards the Boston Red Sox as the only first class aggregation in the country and, in making this statement, he takes a rap at both the Chicago clubs. Hugh Jennings says that if the Red Sox, Tigers or White Sox are in the National league this year they would have been over a front the race would have been over a month ago. Now, both of these men may be right, but it must be remembered that the National league was considered a joke last year, that the Boston Braves were considered cheese champions, but at the finish they cleaned up on the famous Athletics in four games.

PERCY D. HAUGHTON, FAMOUS FOOTBALL COACH, NOW A "ROOKIE" AT PLATTSBURG

Percy D. Haughton, the famous Harvard football coach and past Crimson gridiron star, has lined up with the "rookies" at Plattsburg. He is an apt soldier, with plenty of "push" in him instilled by his long experience on the football field. The famous football hero is seen here posing on a tent rope at the Military Construction Camp, where he is being taught the rudiments of a commanding volunteer.

To Re-Build Team

Now comes the story that McDrew is going to ask waivers on a whole flock of Giants. He is going to completely rebuild his team. There are many who believe that this is McDrew's last year as a Giant. He may manage one of the big league teams next season.

Bush Stays Home

Second Baseman Joe Bush was not able to leave with the Portsmouth team when it left Friday for Frankfort, Doherty being taken along to fill Bush's place until Bush gets back in the game. Bush will probably join his teammates Sunday. His sprained ankle is yielding slowly to treatment.

Spencer To Don Spangles

Manager Chas. Spencer is feeling much better, and he stated last night that he would get back in the game at Frankfort.

A Collision

A Southern Express wagon driven by Frank Adams, and an automobile driven by Miss Emma Johnson, collided at Front and Chillieth streets late Thursday afternoon. No one was hurt and only slight damages resulted to the Johnson car.

OSTEOPATHY at HOME

PRACTICAL LESSONS WHICH WILL BENEFIT HEALTH

DR. R. KENDRICK SMITH

Sub-Occipital Pain and What May Be Done at Home to Help It

In childhood and in youth there is perfect freedom of movement of the head upon the neck. This is due first to the formation of the joints between the skull and the top bone of the spine and between the upper bones in the neck. This mobility is maintained during adolescence by the endless variety of movements in the general bodily activity kept up during that period of life. In the following years of the adult career, however, this is not so true. Unless there is regular manual labor, systematic gymnastic work or indulgence in athletics, dancing or other free and extensive movements the average adult in the ordinary employment of today settles down to a limited variety and extent of daily action. This is particularly true of city folks and these following clerical pursuits. The result is a shortening, thickening and stiffening of the muscles and ligaments holding the head to the neck. The natural sequel to such a lessened mobility is more or less pressure interference with the many important nerves and blood vessels in this vital area. Another factor which aids in this injurious process is the habit of city folks who hold the head in a fixed position frequently for a considerable space of time, as in reading, writing, bookkeeping, sewing, theatre-going and even sleeping. This is a distinct violation of nature's laws and cannot help but be injurious unless compensated for by frequent alteration of varied and lively exercises.

Annoying Symptoms Follow.

A multitude of painful and annoying symptoms follow. Possibly there is no more common collection of discomforts than those which fall in this category, such as neuralgia, neuritis, stiff neck, headaches, eyestrain and other similar conditions. This also conduces to a weakened resistance to colds from exposure to drafts and as a result of alternating high and low neck position.

But it is not only for local pain in the head and neck that one should be careful to keep this part of the body in perfect adjustment, as the general health may often be affected by the handicap of interference with normal motion at this point. This is particularly true of the nervous system. This may often be seriously affected in this way. The best thing to do from the standpoint of prevention of disease is to have an osteopath adjust these articulations once or twice a year just as regularly as you have the dentist fix your teeth, and then you will be able to keep them in good condition by following the suggestions in this article for home treatment.

There is one simple treatment which any person may administer for immediate relief for that drawn strained feeling of tightness so frequently experienced at the spot which the patient often describes as "the base of the brain." This may be done sitting up, but is most effective lying down. It is desirable to maintain it for ten or fifteen minutes at a time. This should be followed by turning the head as far as possible first to the right, then to the left, then bending the head forward and backward. After this roll the head around on the neck as if it were a ball.

When pain is intense it is well to alternate these exercises with the application of a little cracked ice in a handkerchief. The use of a hot water bottle at this place, which is so often resorted to, is usually a mistake, as in many cases it is injurious to cause an increase of blood at so vital a spot. This does not mean that heat is never useful here, as extreme heat is valuable when used only a brief time, especially when alternated with ice, but never should a hot water bottle be kept there very long, and never should it be left until it becomes merely warm.

A Signal of Danger.

It must always be borne in mind that pain is a signal of danger and self-diagnosis must not be relied upon to differentiate between harmless symptoms and serious conditions which may necessitate consultation with a professional adviser. Frequent severe pain should always suggest to the sufferer the wisdom of consulting with a practitioner who will make a thorough physical examination to ascertain the cause which is producing the trouble. Stomach troubles and eyestrain are two of the frequent causes which need to be looked into. In many of these cases the patient does not drink enough water to keep the blood in proper condition, and in other cases there are errors of diet to be corrected.

Pimples and Skin Eruptions Danger Signs of Bad Blood

It May Mean Eczema, Scrofula—The First Sign of Inherited Blood Disease

Pimples, scaly itching skin, rashes, burning sensations and Scrofula denote with unfailing certainty a debilitated, weakened and impure state of the blood. The trouble may have been in your blood from birth, but no matter how you were infected, you must treat it through the blood. It is a blood disease. You must use S. S. S., the standard blood tonic for 30 years. If you expect certain relief. The purifying the system, nothing is equal to it. The action of S. S. S. is to cleanse the blood. It works through the system direct to the seat of the trouble—acting as an antidote to neutralize the blood poisons. It revitalizes the red blood corpuscles, increases the flow so that the blood can properly perform its physical work. The dull sluggish feeling leaves you—the complexion clears up. Even long standing cases respond promptly. But you must take S. S. S. Drugs and substitutes won't do. Get S. S. S. from your druggist. If yours is a special case and you need expert advice, write to S. S. S. Co., Atlanta, Ga.

Allege Buena Vista Youths Broke Up Religious Meetings

Roy Rayburn, Roy Willis, Charles Willis, and Gilbert Sparks, four Buena Vista youths, were brought before Judge Beatty Friday morning on charges of delinquency, growing out of their alleged acts of breaking up religious meetings and disturbing property. More than a dozen witnesses from Buena Vista appeared against them.

During the hearing it developed that Albert Newman, a Buena Vista young man, had furnished the youths with liquor and had encouraged them to commit unlawful acts. Judge Beatty promptly ordered him locked up on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of minors. He will have a hearing later.

The court will also issue orders for the arrest of other men in that section who are said to be responsible for the acts of the lads.

Judge Beatty has taken the case of the four boys under advisement. In the meantime they will be allowed their liberty.

GUARD TREE FRANK WAS HANGED ON

Marietta, Ga., Aug. 20.—Watchmen today were guarding the big oak tree, two miles from here, on which the lifeless body of Leo M. Frank, convicted of the murder of Mary Phagan, was found dangling Tuesday morning, to prevent souvenir hunters, or others, from molesting it. The tree soon is to be surrounded with a concrete wall, it is announced, and thus preserved by the owner, W. J. Frey, to mark the death-place of the alleged slayer of the Phagan girl.

Meanwhile the tree is being guarded day and night. It was said that Frey had declined an offer of $200 for the tree.

Visitors to Marietta during the past two days have been unusually numerous and practically all have visited the scene of the lynching.

Portsmouth Construction Co. Explains Attitude On Unions

Editor Times:

We see an article in your issue of the 17th over the signature of Harry Strong, business agent of the Building Trades Council, in which he refers to the Portsmouth Construction company as an organization unfair to union labor. While we have been aware ever since the organization of our company that such an impression was being passed out among the mechanics in the city, and that every influence possible was being brought to bear upon owners to prevent their letting contracts to us, yet we have kept our own counsel, but when it comes to our being published as an unfair organization we feel that in justice to ourselves the public should know our position as regards union labor.

The manager of our company has always been and is yet friendly to organized labor and has always worked union mechanics whenever possible, and is willing to do so yet, and has appealed to Mr. Strong for union carpenters many times, but always with the same result, they will not be allowed to work for us, because we have allowed certain plumbers to have our work where the owners have expressed a preference for them. We have never taken up the plumbers' fight, neither do we intend to do so. We have been declared "Fair" by the International Union, yet this local with their superior wisdom have seen fit to declare us "Unfair" and will not let the local men work for us, and are compelling us to get mechanics from other states when we would much rather pay our money to home men, and let the money stay at home, but we have no option in the matter as we must get our work done. We have no fight or grievance against union labor, and any one circulating such a report is either ignorant of our position, or willfully misrepresenting us.

We are free to admit that the basic principles of unions are right and when they are intelligently administered work for the good of both employer and employee, but when imposed upon by persons who are over zealous, or those actuated by motives of personal interest, then they are injurious to every one concerned, and the public in general must suffer from business depressions which must follow in the wake of labor troubles of any kind.

As we see the situation that exists in the city of Portsmouth today, it is not a question of wage that is causing the present trouble, but because the contractor has been reduced to the position of collecting agent and paymaster for his employees. He is not at liberty to take work that is even offered to him without competition, without first consulting his men if he may take the work, and ask them under just what conditions he must take the work, in short, the only place he is useful is on Saturday night with the pay envelope.

This is the only question between our company and the business agent of the unions. We are employing union bricklayers exclusively, and there is no reason under International Union Law why we cannot have union carpenters except the fact that in open violation of International agreements, the business agent has refused to let other union tradesmen work for us on account of the plumbers trouble when as a matter of fact the plumbers are not affiliated internationally with the carpenters or plasterers, and we feel that if there is any grievance in the matter it is upon our part, and not upon the side of unions, as we have asked them to work for us and they have repeatedly refused, therefore, we are not responsible for the situation that exists here at present.

We shall insist upon the right to conduct our business as seems most advantageous to those who are responsible to the owner, for the correctness of the work, and also to the employee for their wages, and we refuse to consult our employees as to whom we shall work for, or as to our methods of running our business. We are perfectly willing to pay competent mechanics of any trade, the union wage, and work the union hours, in short we are willing to concede any and all points in question, except the right of those who have no responsibility whatever, to come in and dictate our business policies, and upon this one point there will be no compromise.

Yours very truly,
Portsmouth Construction Co.

CLAIMS HUSBAND STOLE SHEETS FROM BED TO GET WHISKEY

It took James Russell of Eleventh street to spring something new on the police as he was arrested Thursday afternoon carrying a velocipede around town and trying to sell it to some junk dealer. The vehicle had been picked up on Eleventh street.

Russell is the father of a large family and his wife reported to the mayor that he has become such a habitual drunkard that he takes flour out of the house, sheets off the bed and even has sold the children's shoes to get money for drink. Russell in police court denied all this but admitted that he was drunk Thursday when he picked up a velocipede—he knew not where. A fine of $5 and costs was placed on the prisoner and he was ordered to return the velocipede.

How Heat Affects the Vital Organs

Hot Weather Conduces to Chronic Constipation and Diarrhea

A disposition to confine one's diet to cold food and to indulge freely in iced drinks, is one reason why constipation and diarrhea is so prevalent in summer, and there is no reason when bowel disturbances should be more carefully avoided, as much serious disease is directly traceable to these conditions.

To regulate the bowels and quickly relieve even an aggravated case of constipation, the combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin, sold in drug stores under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is highly recommended by many physicians and all those who have used it. Unlike cathartics and violent purgatives, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin acts gently on stomach, liver and bowels, without griping or other discomfort and brings relief in an easy, natural manner. Mild, pleasant to the taste, and inexpensive, it is the ideal family laxative. By cleansing the bowel tract and eliminating the foreign matter and poisons that irritate and inflame, it will quickly check an attack of diarrhea and restore normal conditions.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin has been the standard remedy in countless homes for more than thirty years, and is sold in drug stores everywhere for fifty cents a bottle. A free trial can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 433 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

Approve J. Switalski's Selection As Wet Campaign Manager

At a joint meeting of the Business Men's League and the Scioto County Liquor Dealer's Association, held Friday afternoon, Joseph Switalski was unanimously elected to the position of manager of the wet campaign, which is to be waged in this city and Scioto county this fall, preparatory to Ohio again voting on statewide prohibition. Mr. Switalski was tentatively selected two weeks ago, and at a joint meeting of these two organizations today Mr. Switalski's selection was made unanimous. The wets will open their headquarters right away in the Turley building and Mr. Switalski will be in full charge of the offices. The two organizations had a good representation present at the meeting and matters affecting the wet and dry situation were taken up and discussed. It was stated that the wets will have their usual quota of speakers during the campaign.

3 Sleepy Cobblers Miss Train When Team Goes To Frankfort

Safely wrapped in the arms of Morphous Pitcher John Ferguson, Shortstop Howdy Caton and Third Baseman Dillhoefer of the local team slept the sleep of the innocent this morning while their teammates rolled out of bed at an early hour and caught the fast N. & W. train this morning for Cincinnati, where they took another train for Frankfort, their destination.

Dillhoefer and Ferguson succeeded in catching the early C. & O. train this morning and got away but Caton was not so fortunate. He found himself marooned here and was not able to get away until this afternoon.

If a game is played in Frankfort today Portsmouth will certainly trot out one patched up team as all the pitchers would have to take part in it to have nine men on the field.

Three New Members Of The High School Faculty Appointed

Appointment of three new members of the Portsmouth High School faculty were announced Friday by Supt. Frank Appel.

Miss Madeline Baird, of Columbus, a former Portsmouth resident, has been selected by Supt. Appel to succeed Dwight Cornslet, who formerly had charge of the chemistry laboratory of the High school. Miss Baird is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Baird, for many years highly esteemed residents of this city.

Miss Baird is a graduate of the Ohio State University, where for the past two years she held the position of assistant in the chemistry department of this institution. Miss Baird has numerous friends here who will be pleased to learn that she is soon to again become a resident of Portsmouth.

Miss Mildred Chick, of this city, has been selected by Supt. Appel to succeed Miss Marjorie Pursell as teacher of history in the High school. Miss Pursell recently resigned.

Thomas A. Wood, of Bertha, on the West Side, has been selected by Supt. Appel to succeed E. W. Hunsberger, who recently resigned.

Mr. Wood will teach physics. These appointments may be confirmed at tonight's meeting of the school board.

Express Appreciation To Local Citizens

Col. E. A. Llewellyn, through the Times, wishes to express on behalf of the officers and members of the First and Second Regiments, Jr. O. U. A. M., their appreciation to the people of Portsmouth for their cordial reception and treatment during the past week. They especially appreciate the treatment accorded them by the city officials, the members of the G. A. R. and the press.

Fires Lit Today

Gas stoves sizzled merrily in several downtown retail stores Friday and people were seen wearing heavy wraps, so cool was the weather today. Surely this has been the freakiest summer that Portsmouth has passed through in many years. The maximum temperature today was 67, which is certainly going some for August. The minimum was 58.

Fell From Trestle; Two Men Injured

A foreigner and E. I. Barger, a foreman for the C. Yancy Ligon Co., who are building the bridge piers for the Little Santa river bridge one mile back of Sciotoville were injured early Friday morning when a small car loaded with steel for the piers and the two men fell from the 12 foot temporary trestle to the ground.

Asks For A Divorce

Suit for divorce was filed in common pleas court Friday afternoon by Attorney N. B. Gilliland, representing Daniel L. Martin, wife of Mabel M. Martin. He alleges that his wife deserted him on January 5th last, and has ever since absented herself from him. The petition says that they were married April 1, 1912, at Covington, Ky. and have no children.

For 5cSpecial Good Angel Must Be Guarding Local Ministers Tires

A kind good angel seems to be hovering over ministers of Portsmouth who are enthusiasts as motorists and venture outside of the city limits on extended trips. Only recently Rev. C. Lloyd Strecker, pastor of Trinity church, came to the front with a story that he had driven about 3,000 miles without even having a puncture. Friday morning Rev. J. W. Dunning of the First Presbyterian church, came forward with a story that he had traveled 1,200 miles on a four weeks vacation trip and had not suffered one puncture.

One of his tires, he claimed, was in such a wretched condition that before starting he was seriously thinking of selling it to a junk dealer for a small salvage. But he kept the tire and it not only held but the other three tires as well.

And Rev. Dunning says that he was not traveling on the best of roads all the time either. Up in the state of Michigan there has been considerable rain, the weather man by the way, trying to outdo the Scioto county record, and the roads were in bad shape. On one strip of road Rev. Dunning was forced to carry an ax and a shovel along with him and practically build his own road. Stories coming from these ministers of the gospel can not be doubted and either they are better motorists than the average individual or have some secret understanding with fate.

Rev. Dunning, accompanied by Mrs. Dunning, her sister, Miss Margaret Mahoney, Mr. Dunning's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Dunning and Mrs. Dunning's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Mahoney, enjoyed a four weeks camping and fishing trip at Elllake, Mich. They had splendid luck and enjoyed the outing immensely. Enroute home Mr. and Mrs. Dunning stopped over at the home of Mr. Dunning's parents at Corns, Mich., and at Mrs. Dunning's parents home at St. Charles, Mich. Rev. Dunning and wife arrived home Friday morning after a most delightful trip and the pastor will occupy the First Presbyterian church pulpit Sunday.

Loading 12-inch disappearing coast defense gun.

Members of the coast defense division of the national guard who are receiving practical instruction in coast defense work at Fort Wright, one of the main forts protecting New York, next to Sandy Hook, on Fisher's Island, are here shown ramming home the shell into one of the big 12-inch disappearing guns. Immediately after the shell has been rammed into place the big gun rises from its turret and is ready to send forth its fire of destruction.

Fama Beltz and Emma Wamsley spent Sunday with their aunt, Mrs. Nora Wamsley.

Mrs. Walter Elrod spent Sunday afternoon with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mitchell.

The celebration at this place was spoiled by the big rain in the afternoon, the crowd having to go home through mud and rain.

Mrs. Lucinda King spent Tuesday with Mr. Martin Wamsley.

Oscar Maddy has begun cutting tobacco.

Rev. Upton, of Otway, will preach his farewell sermon at this place Sunday. There will be baptizing in the afternoon.

ROCKY VALLEY

Roy Richard, our merchant, was a Blue Creek visitor, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Leighty are holding a big meeting here. They expect to be here about two weeks.

Miss Nannie Elmore spent Saturday and Sunday with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo King.

There were 75 persons in attendance at the birthday dinner at Mr. Edward Howard's Aug. 11. It was Edward's 31st birthday.

Mrs. Maud Brownfield is very ill.

Misses Gracie and Marylou Brown of Mt. Unger attended the preaching services here Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Elmore and two little sons, Robert and Edward spent Saturday and Sunday with the latter's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Spence of Wamsley.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Leighty and son, Thomas of Portsmouth, O., are visiting friends and relatives at this place.

Quite a number of people from this place attended the celebration at Wamsley Saturday.

First Presbyterian Church Overhauled;
Services On Sunday

At the First Presbyterian church Sunday all the regular Sabbath services will be resumed after the summer vacation.

The pastor, Rev. John W. Dunning, returned from his vacation spent at Elllake, Michigan, Friday morning, and will preach both morning and evening. The services of Sunday will be a home coming for all members of the church, and the officers urge all members to be present at both services.

A large attendance is looked for at the Bible school, when many who have been absent for the summer are expected to return. Members of the adult department and men's class are urged to be on hand.

During the summer the church has been completely overhauled and presents a very attractive appearance. The lawns and gardens which are one of the beauty spots of the city are in the midst of their midsummer beauty.

Everything points to a great opening day when services are resumed Sunday after being closed for a month.

Score Another One For The Arcana Theatre

In an effort to give his patrons every possible thing for their entertainment, Manager J. F. Potts, of the Arcana Theatre, has just installed a $1500.00 Wurlitzer Orchestra, one of the greatest music machines in the world, and one that will make his theater even more popular than ever. This machine plays a dozen instruments, and its music is admitted to be as harmonious as a skilled orchestra of that number. Everything is in perfect tune and it will be played continuously during the big shows offered at the Arcana. While its cost was tremendous, nevertheless Manager Potts believes in doing things well. He goes on the theory that there is nothing too good for his patrons, and is ever looking out for their interests. The Wurlitzer Orchestra is the same machine that has been installed in the real big city theatres and Manager Potts is to be congratulated upon being the first to buy such an instrument. Prof. Eicher, of the Wurlitzer Co., is here and in charge of the great machine. The Arcana can now boast of being one of the most up-to-date theatres in the state. With a gold-fiber screen, the latest of picture machines, comfortable seats, sanitary surroundings and the Wurlitzer Orchestra, all the appointments of the Arcana are perfect and it is little wonder that this popular theatre is drawing the crowds.

Come and hear this new instrument - it's great. Incidentally Manager Potts has a great show for tonight.

First and foremost will be a 101 Bison film, entitled, "The Test of a Man," a two-reel railroad picture that is a thriller from start to finish. See the big collision between two monster engines. Railroad men should see this great feature without fail. Second will be on a L. K. O. comedy, entitled, "A Dismantled Beauty." This is a riot of fun and humor and should pack the house itself. Third will be a Nestor comedy, entitled, "Reuben's Busy Day." This is a scream. See it. Remember that the price of admission will remain at 5 cents, which makes the Arcana so popular, and where you see the big features all the time.

"The Wild Olive" With Myrtle Stedman—Paramount Attraction at the Columbia Tonight.

Tonight is regularly weekly Paramount night at the Columbia and this week's attraction is "The Wild Olive," the celebrated novel by Basil King with Miss Myrtle Stedman in the principal character supported by Forrest Stanley and a strong company of celebrated actors.

The international scope of this story presents a spectacular series of scenes extending from the pines and lumber camps of the Alleghenies to the Plaza, mansions and steamship docks of Argentine Republic.

The romance between the wealthy mountain girl and the dashing and handsome college man has been pronounced one of the most sympathetic, as well as one of the most interesting romances in modern fiction.

This is truly a most interesting feature picture in five parts, as the story is one of rare interest and the cast includes some of the very best artists from the speaking stage, making a picture far above the average feature pictures and one that cannot fail to please with its interesting plot and beautiful natural scenic beauty.

At The Exhibit

A splendid Thanhouser feature, "The Picture of Dorian Gray," is a two-reel dramatic feature that is leading the program at The Exhibit tonight. Harris Gordon is playing the leading role in this celebrated picture. In addition there is a good comedy that more than balances the bill. Three big reels of good pictures for five cents. Every evening there is special music by a high-class orchestra.

60 Temple Theatre

"The Mountain Girl" is one of the most heart gripping and intensely dramatic episodes of the California hills, featuring Dorothy Gish and Ralph Lewis. The third is entitled "The High Cost of Flirting." It's a comedy-romance, involving a corpulent philanthropist played by Winifred Greenwood, Edward Coxen, John Stepping, George Field and Lillian Knight. The fourth is a comedy entitled "Beppo The Barber."

At The Majestic

"War At Home" is the title of a two reel dramatic feature that is being offered as the headliner at The Majestic theatre tonight. Ethel Grandin, one of the most popular actors now playing, is taking the leading role. "The Come Back" is another single reel drama that has a gripping interest. Edythe Sterling and Willis Robard are taking the principal roles in this picture.

Tonight's program is strongly dramatic, so don't fail to see it. Tomorrow's picture is entitled "The Curse," with Lillian Hamilton and Fred Church taking the leading roles.

THEATRICALVogel Tonight

John W. Vogel's minstrels arrived at ten o'clock this morning over the B. & O. and will open their two days' engagement at the Sun theatre tonight.

The boys paraded from the car over the principal streets at noon today and caused very favorable comment as to their natty uniforms and the excellence of the band.

The Vogel minstrels depart from the usual minstrel show in a way by giving instead of the familiar first part, an operatic spectacular, minstrel extravaganza, called "Jupland" in which all members of the company take active parts and includes a bevy of operatic prima donnas. This novelty has been a big success and Mr. Vogel has been congratulated very highly on "Jupland" as being a distinct novelty.

Vogel's minstrels come to the Sun theatre with the strong endorsement of every city they have played this season. Last week they played the Fairbanks theatre in Springfield, and the show was said to be one of the best that had ever been seen in that city. Patrons are assured one of the very best minstrel show on the road, and from the advance sale it looks very favorable toward three capacity houses for the engagement.

Manly Church Sunday School Will Hold Picnic On Saturday

Members of Manly M. E. Sunday school will hold their annual picnic at Millbrook park Saturday afternoon. They are requested to assemble at Eleventh and Bay streets at 1 o'clock Saturday, where extra cars will be in waiting to take them to Millbrook. Special cars will also bring them back at 7 o'clock in the evening. The committee on arrangements is composed of Mrs. J. M. Lowe, Philip Pfarr, and Mrs. Rachael Swearingen. They have arranged athletic games, sports and contests for the older children, and games for the little folks. A tug of war is another feature. Croquet sets will be taken along for those who want to play croquet.

At six o'clock the picnic dinner will be spread on the lawn, and the committee announces that there will be plenty for all.

FRECKLES

Don't Hide Them With a Veil: Remove Them With the Othine Prescription. This prescription for the removal of freckles was written by a prominent physician and is usually so successful in removing freckles and giving a clear, beautiful complexion that it is sold by Fisher and Streich under guarantee to refund the money if it fails. Don't hide your freckles under a veil; get rid of them and remove them. Even the first few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the lighter freckles vanishing entirely. Be sure to ask the druggist for the Othine strength ointment; it is this that is sold on the money-back guarantee.

WILL OPEN A MILLINERY STORE

Miss Grace Adams, daughter of H. B. Adams, and an experienced milliner, has announced her intention of opening an up-to-date millinery store in the East End. The hat shop will be located on the second floor of the Voelker building on Eleventh street, near Lawson. Miss Adams has had much practical experience in the millinery line and will give the East End a first-class store. She will leave soon for Cincinnati and Cleveland to buy goods.

Woman Used Hot Apple Butter To Defend Her Honor

Gripping a pot of apple butter in her hands, Mrs. William Bowman, 1315 Robinson avenue, threatened to throw it at a man, if he did not get out of the house after he is alleged to have insulted her, according to the husband.

The latter reported to the police Friday morning that while he was down town Thursday, a certain man walked into his home while under the influence of liquor and made an insulting remark to his wife, but she defended herself by picking up the pot of apple butter, which was standing on a table. The man, the husband claims, backed out of the house. The husband refused to file any charges, but reported to the police that he was going to see him and demand an apology.

Circus Man Anxious To Get Grounds Here

H. R. Beckett, advance man for Barnum and Bailey's circus, left Friday for Northern Ohio to straighten some matters there for his circus. When this work is completed Mr. Beckett will return to Portsmouth and again take up the task of securing a lot for the circus to exhibit here on Wednesday, Sept. 29. "I like the looks of Portsmouth and do not want to pass up your city," Mr. Beckett told Fred Tynes before leaving the city.

JUMPS FROM A SECOND STORY WINDOW TO ESCAPE

Clad only in a pair of overalls, Stephen Osborne jumped from a second story window Thursday evening and escaped a squad of police who went to arrest him on a charge of stealing two horses, preferred by Julia Osborne.

Osborne was staying at the John McGuire home on Union street when the police went to arrest him. He evidently got wind of their coming before they reached the house, for the patrolmen reached there in time to see him make his leap for liberty. It is thought he escaped to Kentucky.

The two horses are valued at $100 each, one of them having been purchased by Dick Hostwick, not knowing it was stolen property. He readily turned it over to the police, although he had paid $50 down on the animal.

GUNS TO ROAR IN MILLBROOK PARK TOMORROW

Sham Battle Is To Be Fought By The Jr.O.U.A.M. Forces; Dance Held Tonight

Brigadier-General Howard J. Ware, of the First Brigade, Jr. O. U. A. M., is expected to arrive at Camp Llewellyn Friday noon, and will take command at once. He succeeds Col. E. A. Llewellyn, ranking Colonel of the brigade, who will become second in command.

General Ware was detained at home by pressing business engagements during the greater part of the week, but is bending every effort to spend the last hours of the camp with his men.

At the same time the battery of four two-inch guns is expected to arrive from Cincinnati for use in the sham battle Saturday afternoon. One gun is already on the ground. Many new arrivals are expected in camp Friday evening and Saturday morning to take part in the sham battle, and to remain until the camp breaks.

The big event for Friday is the military hop this evening, on the steamer Majestic, chartered for the week by the Second Regiment. A cordial invitation has been extended to the members of every fraternal society in Portsmouth and their lady friends to attend the dance, which will be the big social event of the week. The deck on the Majestic is especially adapted for dancing, and good music will be furnished. All officers of the camp will be in full dress, and should make a splendid appearance.

Inspection of the camp Friday morning by the officers disclosed everything as neat and clean as when the camp opened last Friday morning, and the men were especially commended for the tidy appearance of their quarters. One of the characteristic features of the camp since it was pitched has been its cleanliness and orderly arrangement, and it has caused much

"Not Responsible," Says Local Gas Co.

In a communication to the mayor or John McMillan, superintendent of the Portsmouth Gas company, stated that his company was not responsible for the gas mains being laid on Walnut street, Terminal, as the United Fuel Gas company is laying the mains on that thoroughfare. Mr. McMillan agreed with the mayor that in relaying the bricks that a concrete mixture should be placed in the cavity caused by their removal.

He further expressed a desire to co-operate with the city in restoring the streets to their former good condition wherever the gas company is compelled to tear up the street to repair gas leaks.

JR. O. U. A. M. FAVORS FREE TEXT BOOKS

Visiting Juniors in state encampment here were guests of Portsmouth Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., at its regular weekly meeting Thursday evening, which proved to be one of the most interesting meetings of the year. Lieutenant Colonel D. R. Longenecker, of the First, is state conductor of the order, and he made a short talk. Other visitors also spoke. The Council adopted a resolution favoring uniform free text books system for the state, a matter which will be sent to the state convention at Tiffin next week to be acted upon. Two applications for membership were received and referred to the proper committees. Irvin Bowser, past councillor, will attend the state convention at Tiffin next week as the delegate from the Portsmouth Council. Other members are planning to attend.

The Times is in receipt of a letter from Mr. and Mrs. Charles Seerest, formerly of this city, now residing in Rocky Mount, N. Rocky Mount is a great place for the tobacco business, six big warehouses being located there, and right now, is the busiest time of the year. They often see Edwards, Goosetree, Bittle, Dolly Gray, and other former Ohio State League ball players who are members of the Rocky Mount team this year.

RIDAPILE CONES

Germes irritate and enlarge the blood vessels, which creates piles. A new treatment for piles is a recent discovery at New York Specialist. This scientific remedy contains a powerful non-toxic germicide and antiseptic which removes the cause that creates piles without inconvenience to the user of these suppositories. By the use of Ridapile Cones relief is quickly obtained; pain banished; itching immediately ceases; bleeding is stopped; protruding piles and hemorrhoids reduced after a few applications of the Cones when used according to directions, restoring these parts to their healthy condition. Ridapile Cones remove the cause for killing the germ. The Cones exert a healing and soothing action and a trial brings immediate relief. Ridapile Cones do not contain OPIUM, MORPHINE, COCAINE, or other NARCOTICS. PRICE 50c. AND $1.00. FLOOD & BLAKE Drug Store. To prove the merit of Ridapile Cones write for free trial sample to Commercial Products Corporation, 124 East 23rd Street, N. Y.

Canoe Trip

Ellsworth Williams, James Pearce, and Harry Doerr will leave next Tuesday by boat for Point Pleasant, W. Va. Upon their arrival there they will start down the Ohio river in a canoe, stopping enroute to camp along the banks of the river. They expect to be gone ten days.

Mother Complains

Thomas Jones of Lick Run was placed under arrest at his home Thursday afternoon by Constable Lou Seiling on a peace warrant, sworn out by his mother Jane Jones. He was lodged in the county jail to await a hearing. His mother complained that he mistreated his father, his brother and herself, and tried to destroy the household furniture. Jones entered a plea of guilty when arraigned before Squire Byron Friday morning, and made such a strong plea for clemency that the court released him upon payment of the costs and a bond of $1000 to keep the peace for one year.

favorable comment from the camp visitors.

Thursday evening's dress parade was executed without a hitch, and was the best of the week. The flood wall and sides of the parade grounds were crowded with spectators, who were surprised at the manner in which the drill was executed. The dress parades have been one of the most interesting events of the week's encampment to visitors.

Col. E. A. Llewellyn and Col. William Yarnell and their staffs visited Millbrook this morning to view the location for the sham battle. They will arrange for the location of the various maneuvers that will precede the actual battle. The wireless signaling corps, the engineering corps and the sharpshooters will all have important parts to play before the firing begins. Many tickets have been sold, and a large crowd is assured.

Camp Llewellyn Notes. Scouted by the entire Second Regiment, headed by its field drum corps, Col. E. A. Llewellyn and his entire staff attended the weekly meeting of the Portsmouth Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., at its hall, corner of Fifth and Chillicothe streets. Thursday evening. It was a big night for the local lodge, which entertained its distinguished guests with the cordiality for which the members are noted.

Lieut-Col. D. R. Longenecker, of the First Regiment, is state conductor of the order, and he made an interesting address at the local lodge meeting Thursday evening. He will attend the state convention at Tiffin next week.

One of the many enjoyable incidents of the daily camp routine is the officers' social session in the officers' mess tent every night at 11:30 o'clock. Light refreshments are served, and the men meet and exchange their ideas about the betterment of the order, especially the uniformed rank. They are like one big family and with them the state encampment is an event that is looked for with much eager anticipation each year.

Many of the officers and privates in camp here this week are active workers in the lodge proper, and scores of them are planning to attend the state convention at Tiffin next week. For many of them, the annual encampment and the state convention makes an enjoyable two weeks' vacation.

GERMANS TAKE NOVOGEORGIEVSK

TWO AMERICANS, ON ARABIC WHEN BOAT WAS TORPEDOED BY GERMANS MISSING

ONLY TWENTY OUT OF 423 PERISHED

New York, Aug. 20.—Two Americans were still unaccounted for in the list received here giving the names of those saved from the White Star steamer Arabic, torpedoed and sunk yesterday morning by a German submarine off the south coast of Ireland. They were Dr. Edmund E. Wood, of Junesville, Wisconsin; and Mrs. Josephine L. Brugiere, a wealthy American widow who has been living in Europe for some years, but who is well known in New York, Newport and San Francisco.

Reports to the White Star line showed that 30 persons in all of those aboard the lost liner had not been accounted for. Eight of those were passengers.

The Arabic carried 423 persons when she left Liverpool Wednesday, 181 passengers and 212 in her crew. A dispatch from Queenstown this morning said, on the authority of Consul Thompson, that there were only twenty-one American citizens among the Arabic's passengers. Advice received last night placed the number of Americans on board at twenty-six.

Dr. Wood, one of the Americans unaccounted for, is a leading Wisconsin surgeon. He was on his way home after completing a tour of duty for the Red Cross with the British hospital corps in Flanders. Mrs. Brugiere until her marriage was Miss Josephine I. Sather. Her step-mother, Mrs. James J. Sather, of San Francisco, left $700,000 to the University of California.

WASHINGTON AWAITS DETAILS OF SINKING

Washington, Aug. 20.—Administration officials today anxiously awaited details concerning the sinking of the British steamer Arabic of the White Star line by a German submarine. Definite official information was sought as to whether there was loss of American lives and whether the vessel was torpedoed without warning, as unofficially reported. Today's news dispatches said that two Americans were among the missing.

In the absence of authentic information regarding the destruction of the Arabic officials reserved their comments, although caused grave concern here. Just what course of action will be taken by the United States government will be determined upon only after details have been received.

The last American note to Germany on the sinking of the Lusitania gave warning that the United States would regard as "deliberately unfriendly" any act in violation of the rights of American citizens upon the seas. The note stated specifically that "the lives of noncombatants may in no case be put in jeopardy unless the vessel resists or seeks to escape after being summoned to submit to an examination."

If there was no loss of American lives it was regarded here as unlikely that drastic action will be taken, although if there was, it was believed that diplomatic relations between the United States and Germany would be broken off.

The attack on the Arabic caused general surprise here, particularly in view of the fact that no hint had come from the German government that submarine commanders would continue torpedoing ships without warning and despite frequent reiterations in German circles here that in the future warnings would be given. Officials here had hoped, therefore, that the already tense situation between the United States and Germany would not be further aggravated.

Send Bread And Food To Stricken Galveston

Houston, Texas, Aug. 20.—With bread and other food supplies from neighboring cities reaching Galveston, and a promise that railroad communication with the city soon would be resumed, less anxiety weighed upon the state officials and people here, interested in the distressed people than at any time since Galveston had been in danger. Late messages confirmed reports that little outside aid would be necessary in Galveston, and that the deaths there would number less than a score, attention was turned to other spots which felt the force of the hurricane. Reports from other cities outside of Galveston, early today showed a list of 101 known dead and 158 missing. Of those missing it was thought that more than half had perished.

When the crews of the dredgeboats Sam Houston and San Jacinto were reported safe the missing list was cut down from its previous mark of 304.

The dredges were found aground last night near the Houston canal.

A reassuring statement of conditions in the storm-swept areas was issued here by Governor Ferguson, who has taken charge of the general relief work.

"My information is that the loss of life is not great and the local authorities would be able to handle the situation without assistance," he said.

Two Deaths Toll Of Storm At Port Arthur

Port Arthur, Texas, Aug. 20.—Two deaths and considerable property loss was the toll of the great Gulf storm here. The dead are one man and a negro. The water is receding rapidly today. The water had stood 2½ feet deep at the highest point and 4½ in the lower districts.

Except damage to electric and telephone companies and the unroofing of several houses by the wind, the property loss is confined to stocks in business houses and household goods in homes which were flooded by the high water. Light, power, telephone, telegraph, water and sewer service is cut off and communication is only by boat and rail to Beaumont.

Arrivals from Sabine report that with the exception of the Windsor hotel every structure there either was demolished or was undermined by the water. The residents, however, had ample warning of the approach of the storm and left before it reached there. Previous dispatches reported Port Arthur as having sustained a property damage of approximately $700,000.

Brazilian Minister Feted In Capital

Washington, Aug. 20.—Marked official attentions were paid Jose M. Cardoso, Brazilian minister to Mexico who has looked after American diplomatic interests in Mexico City for many months upon his arrival here today. A program of official entertainment in Mr. Cardoso's honor had been prepared including a formal reception at the White House by President Wilson tomorrow afternoon. President Wilson and Secretary Lansing will make every effort to demonstrate to the diplomat the appreciation of the American government for his efforts to protect American interests in Mexico. Senor Cardoso will be accompanied to the White House tomorrow by Secretary Lansing and Domicio Da Gama, the Brazilian ambassador to the United States, who arrived here today from his summer home to welcome his fellow-countryman. The president will personally thank Senor Cardoso for his efforts in behalf of the American interests.

TWO SMALL BRITISH BOATS ARE SUNK

London, Aug. 20.—Two small British steamers, the Baron Erskine and the Restormel, have been sunk by German submarines. Both crews were saved.

The Restormel, 1,304 tons, was built at Greenock in 1901, and owned by J. Cory and Sons, limited, of Cardiff.

The Baron Erskine, 3,505 tons, was built at Dumbarton in 1913. Her owner was the Hogarth Shipping Co., of Glasgow.

MAXIMS OF CHINESE WARRIOR OF 1150 B. C. ACCOUNT FOR VON HINDENBURG'S SUCCESS

General von Hindenburg. The strategy and tactics of Field Marshal von Hindenburg, one of the commanding figures of the world war, did not originate in the brain of the great German commander, a fact that von Hindenburg frankly admits. To a great extent his maxims are those of the great Chinese warrior Loutao, who lived about 1150 B. C.

MEXICANS CAPTURE TEXAS TOWN

San Antonio, Texas, Aug. 20.—(Mexican)—Under the heading, "It is rumored the town of Mercedes, Texas, Was Taken by Rebels," El Democrata, a newspaper at Matamoros, Mexico, publishes a startling story of how Mexican rebels dealt with an American army and captured the Texas town, according to a message today from Brownsville.

The story said the Mexicans finally abandoned the town to march to other places, the message stated.

GET LAST IMPORTANT BULWARK IN POLAND; CAPTURE 20,000 MEN

Berlin, (via London), Aug. 20.—Official announcement was made here today of the capture of the important Russian fortress of Novogeorgievsk with more than 20,000 men.

The statement follows: "The fortress of Novogeorgievsk, the enemy's last bulwark in Poland has been captured after stubborn resistance. The entire garrison, including over 20,000 men, and an enormous stock of war material fell into our hands."

"The Emperor left for Novogeorgievsk in order to give the thanks of himself and the Fatherland to the leaders of the attack, General Von Veseler and his troops."

The recapture of Novogeorgievsk had been foreseen in the fall of Warsaw. When the general Russian retreat was made from the Warsaw salient Grand Duke Nicholas, the Russian commander in chief, was led to believe he should place a garrison in the fortress, rather than evacuate this position as it was recognized that the only question was how long the defenders would be able to hold out.

The grand duke's decision apparently was due to the strategic position of the fortress. So long as the Russians retained it they were able to stop communication. Novogeorgievsk is 19 miles northwest of Warsaw and is situated at the junction of the Vistula, Narew and Wkra rivers. It was described by an Associated Press correspondent who visited it yesterday as a second Vicksburg.

For nearly two weeks the fortress had been completely invested by the Germans and several of the outlying forts were captured earlier this week. Novogeorgievsk was strongly defended and was said to have been equipped with sufficient ammunition and food supplies for a long period. Its speedy capture doubtless represents another triumph for the great German and Austrian siege guns. Pieces of the heaviest caliber were brought up for the attack.

Resistance Of Russians Broken At Many Points

Berlin, Aug. 19.—(Via London)—The continued advance of the German and Austro-Hungarian troops on the 18th in the movement to encircle Brest-Litovsk, is described by the correspondent of the Allgemeine Zeitung at Austrian press headquarters. The desperate resistance of the Russians was broken at many points and they were forced to retire to prepared defenses in the immediate vicinity of the fortress.

The right wing of Field Marshal Von Mackensen's forces pressed forward energetically from the south.

An Austro-Hungarian army corps was pushed across the Bug east of Dobrynka. Archduke Joseph Ferdinand's troops advanced from Janow and narrowed the circle. Northwest of Brest-Litovsk the Germans forced passage across the Bug at several points. The Russian retreat from Poland is reported to be attended by unprecedented and indescribable misery among the civil population.

German officers returning to headquarters report thousands upon thousands of Poles returning in utter want to destroyed villages. Thousands of wagons and refugees block the roads from the Vistula to the Bug, mothers with children vainly seeking for order. Reports from the governments of Bessarabia, Kherson, Podolia and South Volhynia indicate that the Russians are planning to evacuate this territory soon. Harvesting and threshing are ahead feverishly but no efforts are being made to plant winter crops.

Powers To Offer Bulgaria A Portion Of Macedonia

Rome, Aug. 20.—(Via Paris)—The Entente powers, according to a positive statement made by the Sofia correspondent of the Giornale D'Italia have offered to Bulgaria that part of Macedonia given to her by the Serbo-Bulgarian treaty of 1912, with the right of immediate occupation. The controversy over the part of Macedonia contested by Serbia and the cause of the second Balkan war will be settled after the present war ends.

Proportionate compensation is to be given to Serbia including the city of Kavalah with the districts of Kavalah and Sereh, with the right of immediate occupation.

WORTH THE NOISE.

We rather like the idea of the Merchants' Association to make considerable ado over the completion of the Scioto bridge. The structure is worth making a noise over because it marks a distinct advance to the present in the county and stands as a promise of more rapid development in the future. It is the only real bridge Scioto county has ever had, though the loss of the one that formerly spanned the river near the same point, shows both how well it administered to a necessity and how considerable is the importance of the west side. With better facilities of access to city markets that section yet so largely unimproved, is going to grow steadily and sturdily and it will not be many years before productivity and, consequently its wealth will be doubled.

Its growth, however, is not going to be solely in fruit culture, for which it is especially and splendidly adapted, but in general farming, trucking and stock raising. More than that, if a traction line should cross the bottom it will show an instant and large increase in population. In fact, it doesn't make a bit of difference from what angle you view it, with the completion of the new bridge there will come an altogether cheery and prosperous outlook for the west side, that unluckily and unjustly has been too much discounted and derided in the past.

WELL, DID YOU EVER!

According to utterances and data, offered by the Huntington Advertiser, the fiercest and bloodiest menace to health, that lurks about under strange guises and dogs our footsteps when we are most unconscious of danger, is the bubbling drinking fountain. It all came about through the observation of a health inspector, with an unusual activity, if not perverseness to mischief. He watched a public drinking fountain, of the bubble variety until forty-seven persons had slaked their thirst thereat. Then he raised a howl, that, assembly shut off the peril. Of the forty-seven persons drinking at the fountain, eleven were men, twenty-two women and the remainder children. Most of the drinkers put their lips entirely around the metal bowl and one boy was apparently making an heroic effort to suck the whole outfit out of the ground. Some of the men were chewing tobacco, some looked like they had tuberculosis, others had skin eruptions, most of the women wore paint and a number were not altogether successful in keeping their noses out of the bubbler, several of the boys were smoking cigarettes and many of the children were dirty and grimy.

An altogether distressing and disgusting picture. It becomes a frightful reality because where viscid matter of any sort attaches itself to metal it hangs on tenaciously and a gentle flow of water, such as comes out of the bubbler will not wash it away for some time. It would be better, for this cause, if the mouth-piece of the bubblers or fountains were made of porcelain, marble, or other polished substance, to which there is little adhesion. If the public using fountains would be careful and refrain from bringing the lips in contact with any part of the bubbler, possibility of communicating disease by means of germs and bacteria deposited thereon would be made remote, but our American public is not particularly given to using thoughtfully and kindly the common conveniences provided for it. Some of us, who have the directorship of these sometimes think many are inclined to see just how disgusting they can make themselves with them.

Some people are cackling because the proof is clear now that Germany contracted for immense quantities of munitions of war to be manufactured in this country. It has been plain enough all the time that Germany was making protest because the other fellows could get the stuff across and she couldn't. It must bite, though, to have it pointed out that she herself sold arms to Great Britain, when that mighty empire was at war with the puny Boer republic.

It is too bad that just after the charitably disposed in sympathetic terror contributed funds for an anti-great white plague camp, the state health board should come along with the indictment that the number of deaths from typhoid fever in Scioto county is positively disgraceful. It says Ohio is the worst state in the Union in this matter of typhoid and Scioto one of the three worst counties in the state.

By-the-way, how is that Sciotoville incorporation matter proceeding? Having worked the board of commissioners for the paving at general expense of its main thoroughfare there appears no good reason why the matter of getting on the municipal map should lag further.

Mae is going to take a day off and introduce Bert to his leaders. That's nice, awful nice, so nice in fact that we suggest Harry initiate it and take Charlie up to Columbus and "make him acquainted" with some that pass him by as if they never knew him.

As yet Roy hasn't accepted Charlie's earnest invitation to come around and talk it over, but it must be borne in mind the campaign hasn't really started.

As the end draws so nigh, we fall to wondering where those good old summer days came in.

OUR GOVERNOR IS GETTING FAMOUS

WHY THE FLEAS FLED.

One of our good paid-in-advance subscribers has finally succeeded in getting rid of the fleas that inhabited his bird dog. He took the dog to De Queen and while there visited a show where a man had a bunch of performing fleas. The fleas on the dog got stage-struck and followed the performing fleas off.—Lockersburg, Arkansas, Tribune.

ON SHAKING HANDS.

How do you shake hands? Do you meet the other hand with a warm, firm clasp, or do you tender it to the other fellow in a listless sort of way? A Pomerooy paper some years ago referred to a politician who masqueraded as a statesman up there, as being about as satisfactory a handshaker as a dead fish. It is always a little disconcerting to take an extended hand with cordial pressure and find it a mere lump of inert flesh. We never do it twice if we know it, for we regard the man who doesn't "shake" as one who takes without giving. With a woman it is different, of course. She does her full share in yielding her hand to the male touch.—Gallipolis Tribune.

As yet nobody has hinted that the immense debts the warring nations are piling up mean a return to bi-metalism. England, which has ever been master of the financial world has played just such a trick as that before.

Put this much down to the credit of Cincinnati: She has the lowest death rate, far the lowest, from typhoid fever of any city not only in the state but also the United States.

It seems to be getting in the air that the times are going to be altogether lively this fall. The immense crops ought to swell the prosperity of Scioto county.

Seeing what they got in building a concrete, instead of a brick, road towards Lucasville, the county commissioners ought to be satisfied with it. Nobody else is.

Five years ago this paper laid down the axiom that the way to build a permanent road was to build it for permanency. A ride over the concrete extension on the Scioto Trail will convince of that by the contrary.

Of course, there is vexation and loss through these temporary roads, but that is the tribulation necessary to the condition when we will have real roads.

Persons driving over to Lucasville will find "the longest way round" the shortest. That is they had better take the road across the bottom.

New York, August 20.—The Aeropolitans of Montclair, that halcyon and highbrowed society town in Jersey, are considering the boycott of the town newspapers. The grand motif is to cut down the loss by smooth, light-fingered gentry who are given to porch-climbing and other nocturnal pursuits.

It seems that when a family in Montclair goes away for the week end it is sure to be chronicled under the caption of personals, neighborhood notes, comings and goings or whatever other title occurs to the scribe's ingenious mind. The innocent appearing item invariably invited burglary while the family is absent.

A lady of the town has put the two phenomena together in relation to cause and effect and the town is convinced that society notices encourage the burglar. The suggestion is being considered that instead of sending the items of society folks departure to the newspapers to send them direct to the police.

Vernon Castle, the rascal, is again defying the law on Long Island. This time he let his dog go unmuzzled. The Coney Island magistrate issued an order for Vernon's arrest instead of sending the Sharp Note that is customary in these international affairs.

Sheriff Kinkaid who single handed stopped the riots at Bayonne, N. J., after three sleepless nights of terror has been offered a job war corresponding in the well known European trenches. Kinkaid is a nifty person and no doubt the paper pulled an enterprising stroke but a lot of people are wondering why he should go over there and break up an interesting war.

Every Saturday of these more or less perfectly splendid weeks the down town streets are seething with vacationers bound for places where it is muggier than New York and much more expensive. Their faces tell how they dread it but they must go.

The metropolis is like a Sunday afternoon all day these Saturdays. Little business is transacted and the majority of the larger stores are closed all day.

The old Badger Game, one of the most popular indoor sports for the unwary during the World's Fair in Chicago, is becoming an fait in Gotham. The Badger Game is worked by a man and woman. The woman, apparently of refinement and always togged out like a Fifth Avenue belle, engages in an innocent flirtation with some prosperous man who is susceptible.

After much maneuvering he is invited to drop into her apartment. He does so and finds it one of rare splendor. After a short while, there is a noise in the office. The lady puts a hand to a fluttering heart and whispers staggily: "Heavens, it is my husband. He will kill you." Husband enters and the whole thing is saved by the victim giving up a sizable bank roll to keep the thing quiet.

It developed that Edward C. Kinkaid, the young clerk, who vanished with $22,000 of his firm's money had been a victim to the game of $1,300 by the Badger Game shortly before he skipped out. Several years ago a courageous wealthy man from the west was lured to one of these departments and the lady to test his nerve said: "What would you do if my husband came?" "I'd cut out his heart and drink a pint or so of his blood," was the snappy rejoinder. Friend husband never showed up.

New York is the one gay capital of a war-ridden world. The opening last week of the new theatrical season a fortnight ahead of time emphasizes the fact. Five new plays were given first nights.

My wife's gone to the country; I do not yell "Hooray." I have no socks. Since my wife went away, I eat at one-armed restaurants; My stomach's on the blink. My downy couch has not been made.

In fifteen days, I think. My house, it looks exactly like A whirlwind had swept through; Cigar butts, ashes, playing cards And chips red, white and blue. The sink is full of dishes and The iceman doesn't come; I'm hot and soiled and weary and My home is on the bum. My troubles, they are many. My wife's away, alack, But I'm not telegraphing To ask her to come back.

RECIPE TO CLEAR A PIMPLY SKIN

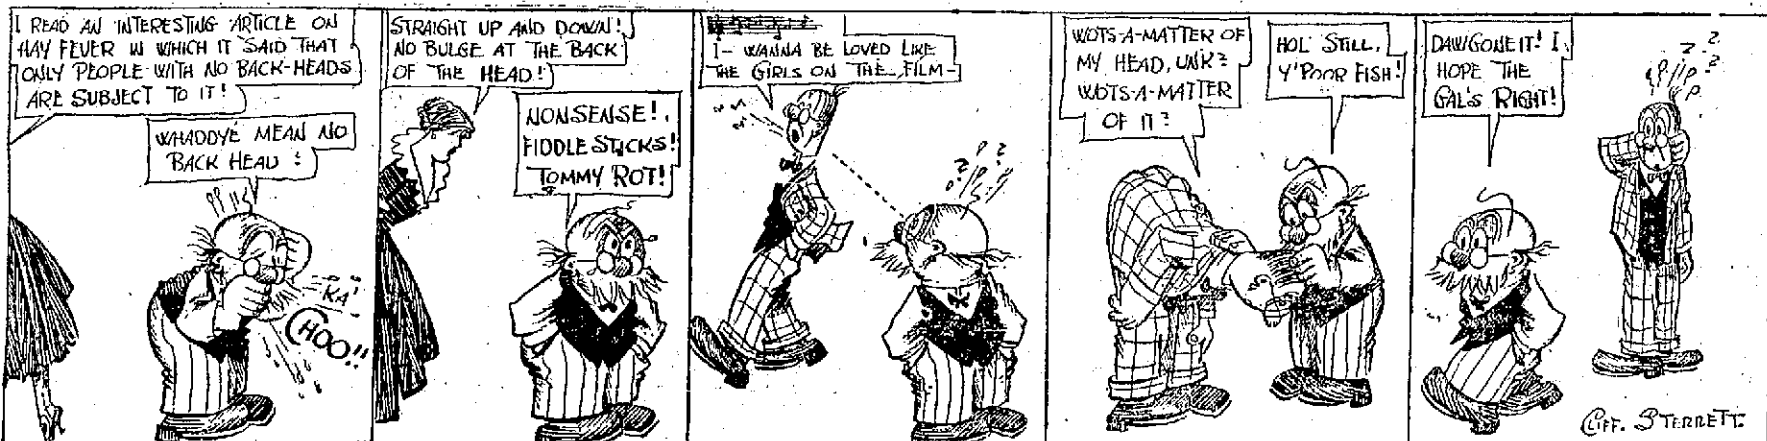

Pimples are Impurities Seeking an Outlet Through Skin Pores.

Pimples, sores and boils usually result from toxins, poisons and impurities which are generated in the bowels and then absorbed into the blood through the very ducts which should absorb only nourishment to sustain the body.

It is the function of the kidneys to filter impurities from the blood and cast them out in the form of urine, but in many instances the bowels create more toxins and impurities than the kidneys can eliminate, then the blood uses the skin pores as the next best means of getting rid of these impurities which often break out all over the skin in the form of pimples.

The surest way to clear the skin of these eruptions, says a noted authority, is to get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of hot water each morning before breakfast for one week. This will prevent the formation of toxins in the bowels. It also stimulates the kidneys to normal activity, thus coaxing them to filter the blood of impurities and clearing the skin of pimples. Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent drink which usually makes pimples disappear, cleanses the blood and is excellent for the kidneys as well.

GUNS TO ROAR IN MILLBROOK PARK TOMORROW

Sham Battle Is To Be Fought By The Jr.O.U.A.M. Forces; Dance Held Tonight

Brigadier-General Howard J. Ware, of the First Brigade, Jr. O. U. A. M., is expected to arrive at Camp Llewellyn Friday noon, and will take command at once. He succeeds Col. E. A. Llewellyn, ranking Colonel of the brigade, who will become second in command.

General Ware was detained at home by pressing business engagements during the greater part of the week, but is bending every effort to spend the last hours of the camp with his men.

At the same time the battery of four two-inch guns is expected to arrive from Cincinnati for use in the sham battle Saturday afternoon. One gun is already on the ground. Many new arrivals are expected in camp Friday evening and Saturday morning, to take part in the sham battle, and to remain until the camp breaks.

The big event for Friday is the military hop this evening, on the steamer Majestic, chartered for the week by the Second Regiment. A cordial invitation has been extended to the members of every fraternal society in Portsmouth and their lady friends to attend the dance, which will be the big social event of the week. The deck on the Majestic is especially adapted for dancing, and good music will be furnished. All officers of the camp will be in full dress, and should make a splendid appearance.

Inspection of the camp Friday morning by the officers disclosed everything as neat and clean as when the camp opened last Friday morning, and the men were especially commended for the tidy appearance of their quarters. One of the characteristic features of the camp since it was pitched, has been its cleanliness and orderly arrangement, and it has caused much favorable comment from the camp visitors.

Thursday evening's dress parade was executed without a hitch, and was the best of the week. The food and sides of the parade grounds were crowded with spectators, who were surprised at the manner in which the drill was executed. The dress parades have been one of the most interesting events of the week's encampment to visitors.

Col. E. A. Llewellyn and Col. William Yarnell and their staffs visited Millbrook this morning to view the location for the sham battle. They will arrange for the location of the various maneuvers that will precede the actual battle. The wireless signaling corps, the engineering corps and the sharpshooters will all have important parts to play before the firing begins. Many tickets have been sold, and a large crowd is assured.

Camp Llewellyn Notes
scouted by the entire Second Regiment, headed by its field drum corps. Col. E. A. Llewellyn and his entire staff, attended the weekly meeting of the Portsmouth Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., at its hall, corner of Fifth and Chillicothe streets, Thursday evening. It was a big night for the local lodge, which entertained its distinguished guests with the cordiality for which the members are noted.

Lieut-Col. D. R. Longenacker, of the First Regiment, is state conductor of the order, and he made an interesting address at the local lodge meeting Thursday evening. He will attend the state convention at Tiffin next week.

One of the many enjoyable incidents of the daily camp routine is the officers' social session in the officers' mess tent every night at 11:30 o'clock. Light refreshments are served, and the men meet and exchange their ideas about the betterment of the order, especially the uniformed rank. They are like one big family and with them the state encampment is an event that is looked for with much eager anticipation each year.

Many of the officers and privates in camp here this week are active workers in the lodge proper, and

Woman Used Hot Apple Butter To Defend Her Honor

Gripping a pot of apple butter in her hands, Mrs. William Bowman, 1315 Robinson avenue, threatened to throw it at a man, if he did not get out of the house after he is alleged to have insulted her, according to the husband.

The latter reported to the police Friday morning that while he was down town Thursday, a certain man walked into his home while under the influence of liquor and made an insulting remark to his wife, but she defended herself by picking up the pot of apple butter, which was standing on a table. The man, she husband claims, backed out of the house. The husband refused to file any charges, but reported to the police that he was going to see him and demand an apology.

JUMPS FROM A SECOND STORY WINDOW TO ESCAPE

Clad only in a pair of overalls, Stephen Osborne jumped from a second story window Thursday evening and escaped a squad of police who went to arrest him on a charge of stealing two horses, preferred by Julia Osborne.

Osborne was staying at the John McGuire home on Union street when the police went to arrest him. He evidently got wind of their coming before they reached the house, for the patrolmen reached there in time to see him make his leap for liberty. It is thought he escaped to Kentucky.

The two horses are valued at $100 each, one of them having been purchased by Dick Botwick, not knowing it was stolen property. He readily turned it over to the police, although he had paid $50 down on the animal.

ROBBERY AT IRONTON

scores of them are planning to attend the state convention at Tiffin next week. For many of them, the annual encampment and the state convention make an enjoyable two weeks' vacation.

For awhile Thursday Lieut-Colonel D. N. Longenacker was in command of the camp, with Captain Foster as ranking adjutant. Both Colonels Llewellyn and Yarnell were up town on business. The two officers demonstrated that they could run the camp in true military fashion, which shows that the order has abundant resources in capable men.

Major John DeArmond and Major G. M. Beard were out seeing the town together Thursday evening, and their experiences caused a lively discussion among the officers at their midnight mess. Both are rated in camp as the real "Indy killers."

FINE RACES AT LUCASVILLE THIS AFTERNOON

Woman To Drive In One Of Events; Soldiers Honored

Today is the last day of the Scioto County Fair, and the directors are anticipating another large crowd, if the weather is favorable. Every exhibit and attraction on the grounds will be kept intact until the close of the fair, and those who have not had the opportunity to go can rest assured that they will see the complete exhibition.

All soldiers and wives and widows of soldiers will be admitted free.

Three good races are scheduled for this afternoon, and in addition a county trot will be held, in which only Scioto county green horses will be eligible. The three races are the 2:23 trot, the 2:18 trot, and the free for all pace, purses $250 each. A good field will start in each race.

Miss Vesta Tibbs, the only woman driver in Ohio, will drive her own horse, Orphan Boy, in the 2:23 trot. That will be a feature worth seeing.

Sixty-five hundred people paid to enter the grounds Thursday, which was the biggest day ever experienced by the fair management. The grounds and nearby fields were swarmed with auto-hiles, buggies, and wagons, while the fair grounds were crowded almost to their capacity. It was a jolly crowd, one that enjoyed every moment of the day.

Music for the races was furnished by the River City band of this city. Several free attractions were staged near the main entrance, and the lovers of stock

Score Another One For The Arcana Theatre

In an effort to give his patrons every possible thing for their entertainment, Manager J. F. Potts, of the Arcana Theatre, has just installed a $1500.00 Wurliizer Orchestra, one of the greatest music machines in the world, and one that will make his theater even more popular than ever. This machine plays a dozen instruments, and its music is admitted to be as harmonious as a skilled orchestra of that number. Everything is in perfect attune and it will be played continuously during the big shows offered at the Arcana. While its cost was tremendous, nevertheless Manager Potts believes in doing things well. He goes on the theory that there is nothing too good for his patrons, and is ever looking out for their interests. The Wurliizer Orchestra is the same machine that has been installed in the real big city theatres and Manager Potts is to be congratulated upon being the first to buy such an instrument. Prof. Eicher, of the Wurliizer Co. is here and in charge of the great machine. The Arcana can now boast of being one of the most up-to-date theatres in the state. With a gold-fiber screen, the latest of picture machines, comfortable seats, sanitary surroundings, and the Wurliizer Orchestra, the appointments of the Arcana are perfect and it is little wonder that this popular theatre is drawing the crowds.

Gov. Harris To Do All In His Power To Avenge Frank

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 19.—Gov. Nat. E. Harris, in his statement on the lynching of Leo M. Frank, published today said he would do all in his power to discover and bring to justice the guilty parties, "believing that the people at large do not justify the wave of lawlessness that seems to be spreading through the state." Concluding his statement, which was given in the form of an interview the governor said: "It is especially distressing to me, because the attack was made upon the state's own prison built not to resist the violence of its citizens outside, but to keep in confinement the weak and helpless convicts who were unfit for service in the chain gangs of the counties."

The statement which was devoted largely to a review of happenings at the prison on the night of August 16 when Frank was abducted, points out that state officials had believed that any attack on the place to get a prisoner could be withstood until the Milledgeville militia could be

SPEED FIENDS WILL RACE 301 MILES TODAY

Elgin, Ill., Aug. 20.—Ralph de Palma, winner of the five events over the Elgin course, was the favorite in today's 301 mile automobile race for the Chicago Automobile Club trophy and a purse of $3,000.

There were ten drivers, five of them whose chances for victory seemed about equal, ready to face the starter. The 336 mile course was declared to be in splendid condition and experts were of the opinion that the winner will attain an average speed of more than 76 miles an hour.

The drivers whose chances for victory seemed equal were De Palma, Barney Oldfield, Earl Cooper who was America's road racing champion in 1913, Gil Anderson and Ed O'Donnell. De Palma knows every inch of the road, having won five races on it, and therefore was made the favorite. Elgin was crowded with racing enthusiasts. Tomorrow 16 drivers will compete for the Elgin trophy. The distance will be the same as today's event—301 miles. Two hundred members of the Illinois National Guard will patrol the course during the two days. The following are the drivers and their cars:
